

Weddings and Engagements

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Complete Plans for Graham-Sprowl Wedding Festivity

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rogers Wigglesworth of Shaker Heights, Cleveland are arriving this Saturday, to be here until after the wedding of Mrs. Wigglesworth's sister, Miss Virginia Lee Graham, to Charles Riggs Sprowl, Saturday evening, January 15. Mr. and Mrs. Wigglesworth will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Phelps Hoover of Evanston. Mrs. Wigglesworth is to be matron of honor.

Three parties in December commenced the festivities attendant upon the wedding. Mrs. Charles E. Carey of Evanston was hostess at a luncheon, bridge, and crystal shower on Friday, December 17, and Miss Vivian Graham, cousin of the bride, gave a luncheon and bridge Wednesday, December 22, at her home in River Forest. Both hostesses at these before-the-holiday parties are bridesmaids in the wedding. During holiday week, Mrs. Robert S. Cushman of Evanston, wife of one of the ushers, entertained at a luncheon and bridge for Miss Graham Tuesday, December 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nisen of Evanston and Mr. and Mrs. Davis Greene of Glencoe gave a buffet supper, and a surprise household equipment shower for Mr. Sprowl this past Wednesday. Mr. Nisen is one of the ushers.

Miss Lesley Champlin of Evanston, formerly of Glencoe, will be hostess at a luncheon, bridge, and pantry shower, Thursday, January 6, and January 7, Miss Barbara Ann Hubbell of Evanston, also a bridesmaid, is to have a tea and kitchen shower.

Saturday, January 8, James Allen Sprowl, who is to best man, and Mrs. Sprowl are introducing the bride and bridegroom to some of their friends at a dinner bridge at their home in Hubbard Woods.

Two of the bridesmaids are arriving next week to participate in before-the-wedding entertaining. Miss Virginia Ewers is coming from Wichita, Kas., on Monday, and Miss Virginia Skinner, who is attending Duke university, is arriving from her home in Durham, N. C., on Thursday, January 13. They will be houseguests of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Stevens Graham of Evanston, formerly of Glencoe.

Monday, January 10, Miss Mary Nevins of Wilmette, another bridesmaid, is to be hostess at a bathroom shower and tea, and two days later Mrs. James Wigglesworth of Winnetka is having a dessert bridge and miscellaneous shower in Miss Graham's honor.

Following cocktails at their home, Mr. and Mrs. Graham will give the bridal dinner January 13, at the Edgewater Beach hotel for the bridal party and the wives and husbands of the married attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Phelps Hoover of Evanston have invited the bridal party and the wives and husbands of the married attendants to dinner pre-

To Live in East

A. G. Ackermann, Jr., Photo
Mrs. Paul Carpenter Hosking, the former Jane Huebner of Evanston was photographed just after her wedding Wednesday afternoon of last week in the Georgian hotel. For her marriage to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Hosking of Wilmette, the bride wore an ivory velvet dress with elbow length tulle veil and an ivory velvet cap. She carried white roses and small white chrysanthemums. She and her husband will live in Buffalo.

Thomas Fullerton Is Engaged to Evanstonian

From Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Hansen of Evanston comes announcement of the engagement of their daughter, Helen Charlotte, to David Fullerton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Fullerton, 408 Central avenue, Wilmette. The betrothal was made known by the Hansens at a tea given Sunday in their home. The wedding will be in May. Miss Hansen is a graduate of Smith college. Mr. Fullerton attended Northwestern university.

ceding the rehearsal Friday evening, January 14.

Mr. Sprowl's mother, Mrs. Charles Orr Sprowl, will come from her home in Lansing, Mich., early the week of the wedding to stay at one of the Evanston hotels. She will be joined a little later by Mr. Sprowl, and both will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Graham at the bridal dinner.

Engagement Is Revealed at New Year's Day Tea

At a New Year's day tea at their home, 480 Willow road, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warren Payne announced the engagement of their daughter, Frances Carolyn, to Karl Vincent Rohlen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Arthur Rohlen of Rockford.

Miss Payne attended Connecticut college and was graduated from Northwestern university, where she was a member of Delta Gamma. Her fiancé is a graduate of the University of Illinois and a member of Beta Theta Pi. No date has been set for the wedding.

Assisting at the tea were Mrs. Paul J. Ramsey of Glencoe, Mrs. Harrie Cogswell and Mrs. A. E. Bossart of Evanston, Mrs. Maynard Riley, Mrs. Harry White, and Mrs. Raymond Darby, of Winnetka, and Mr. Rohlen's two sisters, Mrs. Warren Byrum and Mrs. Marshall Kjellstrum of Rockford.

Simpson-Hopkins Engagement Announced

At a tea at their home on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Thomas I. Simpson, 918 Vernon avenue, Glencoe, announced the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Harper, to Stephen Buxton Hopkins of Evanston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen I. Hopkins of St. Louis.

Following the tea Mrs. P. R. Hicks, 1029 Eastwood road, Glencoe, entertained at a buffet supper for Miss Simpson, her fiancé, and his family who were here for the announcement party.

She is in her final year at the Pestalozzi Froebel Teachers' college, and Mr. Hopkins attended the University of Missouri and was graduated from Washington university in St. Louis. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. No date has been set for the wedding.

Engaged to Be Married

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Tuttle (Dr. Alice Tuttle) of 913 Central avenue, Wilmette, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorcas, to Frederick W. Buckley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Buckley of Arlington Heights. The engagement was made known at a family dinner on Christmas day. Miss Tuttle studied at the National Academy of Art in Chicago. Mr. Buckley attended the University of Illinois.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bleser of Wilmette announce the engagement of their daughter, Marguerite, to John L. Shea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Shea of Evanston. The wedding will take place in the early summer. Miss Bleser is a graduate of New Trier, her fiancé of the St. Patrick academy in Chicago.

Annual Dessert Bridge

St. Francis Mother's club will hold its annual dessert bridge party Friday, January 21, at the Woman's Club of Wilmette.

Virginia Healy and Fiance Are Feted at Parties

Many friends and members of her family are entertaining for Miss Virginia Healy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Francis Healy, 205 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, and her fiancé, Richard Page Sunderland, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sunderland of 1285 Asbury avenue, Hubbard Woods, before their wedding day on Wednesday, January 19.

The middle of December Miss Jean Hawxhurst of Evanston gave a tea for the bride-to-be, and on this same occasion announcement was made of Miss Hawxhurst's engagement. December 28, a second tea was given by Mrs. John L. Porter, Jr., of Evanston at the home of her mother, Mrs. T. Weller Kimball, 333 Leicester road, Kenilworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Sunderland, the bridegroom's parents, and his sister, Betty, were host and hostesses at a cocktail party on Sunday, and next Sunday the bride's brother, William Healy, Jr., will have an eggnog party at home.

The bride's aunt, Mrs. J. Raymond Murphy, will entertain at a reception at her home in Chicago on January 12. Two parties for which definite dates have not been set are the buffet dinner which Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hill will give in their apartment in Evanston, and a dinner the evening of January 15, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Smith of Winnetka will have.

A luncheon and kitchen shower is to be given by Mrs. Richard Cagney of Evanston, the former Mary Lynch of Kenilworth, January 14, and the evening of January 15, Mr. and Mrs. Healy will have the bridal dinner at their home.

The ceremony is to take place at St. Athanasius church in Evanston at high noon, and will be followed by a wedding reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Visits Fiancé's Parents

Miss Bette Kann, daughter of Jack Kann of Manistee, Mich., is a guest at the home of her fiancé, Arnold I. Sobel, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Desider Sobel of 412 Laurel avenue. Miss Kann arrived for New Year's, and before she leaves for home in another week will probably complete the plans for the wedding which is to take place in the near future. Homer Sobel, in his third year at the University of Colorado, left for school on Monday after spending the holidays with his family.

Betrothal Announced

The engagement of Miss Alice Hein of Evanston to William Clark, son of Arthur Clark of Bethlehem, Pa., was announced last Sunday by Miss Hein's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter L. Hein, at a tea they gave at their home. Both young people have many friends on the north shore.