

Martin W. Robinson, Rail Veteran, Dies

Funeral services for Martin W. Robinson, 65, of 1029 Greenleaf avenue, Wilmette, who passed away Friday, February 18, were held Tuesday, February 22 (his birthday), at his birthplace Clyman, Wis. Interment was at Clyman.

Mr. Robinson would have completed 40 years of service with the Chicago and North Western railway on March 1. He was a train collector and well known to hundreds of north shore commuters.

Taken seriously ill several weeks ago, Mr. Robinson was removed to a hospital in Rochester, Minn., where he died last Friday.

Mr. Robinson was born in Clyman, and with his family came to reside in Kenilworth in 1895. He was the last member of a large family. In recent years he had resided with his brother-in-law, Patrick O'Mara, and his niece, Mrs. John J. Schneider, at 1029 Greenleaf avenue, Wilmette. Also surviving Mr. Robinson are three nephews, John, Thomas and Francis Chandler.

J. R. D. Stevenson Dies at Sanitarium

James R. D. Stevenson, former head of the Robert Stevenson drug company, passed away last Friday morning at the North Shore health resort, Winnetka, after an illness of three years.

Mr. Stevenson, who had retired from active business in 1924, was 62 years of age, and, prior to his illness made his home at 560 Hawthorne place, Chicago.

He is survived by his widow, by a son, James R. D. Stevenson, Jr., of Kenilworth, and a daughter, Mrs. Paul B. Magnuson, Jr., of Northbrook.

Funeral services were conducted on Monday afternoon at the Graceland cemetery chapel by the Rev. Herbert L. Willett of the Kenilworth Union church.

Joseph Kutten, Local Coal Dealer, Is Dead

Funeral services for Joseph J. Kutten, prominent North Shore coal merchant, who passed away suddenly Thursday of last week, were held Monday morning from his late residence, 1201 Chestnut avenue, Wilmette, to St. Francis Xavier church. Interment was at All Saints' cemetery.

Mr. Kutten, who was 49 years old, had been a resident of Wilmette since he was a small boy, and for the last quarter century had been associated with the Kutten Brothers Coal company.

He was a member of the North Shore Golf club, of the Wilmette Rotary club, and of the Wilmette Chamber of Commerce. He was treasurer of the Eskimo club, organization of North Shore coal dealers, and it was at a meeting of that organization on Thursday that he was first stricken.

He is survived by his widow; by two children, Robert and Joan; by two sisters, Mrs. William D. Leary and Mrs. Albert Odegaard, and by a brother, Frank, all of Wilmette.

Early Resident of Kenilworth Is Dead

Mrs. Charles L. McCloud, one of the earliest residents of Kenilworth, passed away last Saturday noon at the Georgian hotel in Evanston after an illness of two days.

Mrs. McCloud, with her late husband, first moved to the community nearly 40 years ago, shortly after it was founded. About 15 years ago they made their home in California, and Mrs. McCloud returned to the North Shore after his passing about a year ago. She was 74 years of age.

Funeral services were held at the home of her son, Bentley G. McCloud, 338 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, on Monday afternoon, with interment at Memorial Park cemetery.

Funeral Services for Chester H. Weld Held in Glencoe on Monday

Chester H. Weld, 1240 Central avenue, Wilmette, died of coronary thrombosis on Friday of last week.

Born in Marine Mills, Minn., June 25, 1873, he spent the early years of his life in Minnesota, and later came to Chicago where he was affiliated with the Boye Needle company for the past 30 years.

Mr. Weld is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lillie C. Weld, and his children, El Nora Weld Trabert of Elgin, the Rev. Hiram C. Weld of Boston, Mass., Kenneth A., Eunice A., Wayne K., Ethan R., and Verna Bell S. Weld.

He was a member of the Welcome Masonic lodge, No. 916, and an official member of the North Shore Methodist Episcopal church, Glencoe.

The services were conducted by the Rev. Harold W. McInay at the church on Monday afternoon.

Former Resident of North Shore Is Dead

Gerhardt A. Stolteben, 73, former resident of Winnetka and Wilmette, passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. Wallace Moore, 6508 North Claremont avenue, Chicago, Friday of last week. He had been in ill health for some time.

Funeral services were held at St. Henry's church on Monday morning with interment at All Saints' cemetery.

Formerly associated with Armour and company, he had been retired for the past nine years. His wife passed away exactly six years before. He is survived by his daughter, and by a son, Jack.

Mrs. J. B. Olwin, 820 Lake avenue, returned Wednesday of last week from an extended stay in Phoenix, Ariz., and Los Angeles.

Aged Wilmette Woman Is Taken by Death in East

Mrs. Mary McClymont Scott, 530 Laurel avenue, Wilmette, passed away on Saturday at Stratford, Conn. She was 80 years of age. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at the Scott chapel in Wilmette. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Helen Mathot of Evanston; by a brother, James McClymont of Holdridge, Neb., and by a niece, Mrs. Charles R. Shabino, with whom she had made her home.

"Glorified Flowers" Offered in This Shop

Pursuing a hobby, namely flowers, Mrs. Harry B. Gordon of 1014 Cherry street, Winnetka, opened her shop, "The Peggy Gordon Glorified Flowers" at 1600 Sheridan road in No Man's Land, last Saturday. In her greenhouse she will specialize in one of her great favorites, camellias, which are now the vogue in New York, and in orchids. Gardenias, and flowers and plants of the season are also displayed.

Boat and Sport Show to Open February 27

With the hint of spring in the air, boating and other out-of-door sport lovers of all ages and both sexes are turning their eyes toward famous Navy Pier, Chicago, where the ninth annual edition of the National Boat and Sport show starts February 27 and runs eight days through March 6. The opening day, Sunday, February 27, will be known as "Illinois Day" with the Department of Conservation of this state arranging a celebration, which will include leading state officials. Wednesday, March 2, is Minnesota Day, and other days of the week will be suitably designated.

Miss June M. Kehl, 415 Maple avenue, has gone to Ishpeming, Mich., for the winter carnival, and is spending two weeks there as the houseguest of Miss Constance Nelson.

JEWEL MEAT VALUES

908 LINDEN AVE.—HUBBARD WOODS

1115 CENTRAL—WILMETTE . . . 317 PARK AVE.—GLENCOE . . . 810 ELM ST.—WINNETKA

WILSON WEEK at JEWEL

The Wilson label protects your table

WILSON'S CERTIFIED TENDER, MILD

SMOKED HAM

WHOLE OR SHANK HALF
LB.

21c

BUTT END, LB. 23c

SHANK END, LB. 19c

NATIVE TENDER

SWISS STEAK

LB.

19c

AGED N. Y.
HERKIMER CHEESE lb. 25c

FANCY NORTHERN LAKES
WALL EYED PIKE lb. 14c

WILSON'S CERTIFIED MINCED
LUNCHEON MEAT 1/2 lb. Sliced 10c

GROCERY SPECIALS
ON OPPOSITE PAGE