

At Eastern Star

On Saturday evening, April 2, Wilmette chapter, Order of the Eastern Star will be entertained by the Negro Plantation Jubilee Singers of Chicago, who are acclaimed by music critics in England, Canada, and the United States "as the finest ever heard." Albert hall, in London, England, seating more than 10,000 persons, was taxed to capacity night after night during the Singers' stay. Every member of the quintet has studied voice with outstanding teachers in this country and abroad. Their program in Wilmette is considered a great treat.

On April 21, at 1 o'clock, at the Wilmette Masonic temple, a dessert bridge party is scheduled, with Mrs. Donald Dick chairman.

If you are desirous of a vacation, why not plan to go to Washington, D. C., with the Patron's club of Chicago which is leaving Sunday, April 24, and returned April 28. It is expected that five-hundred persons will make this trip.

Mrs. Mildred Shelton, past matron of Sheboygan chapter 139, Sheboygan, Wis., and Mrs. Elizabeth Ahrens Dorf, past matron of Intersession chapter 712, New York City, were present Monday night at the meeting during which announcement was made by the matron of the coming installation of Mrs. August J. Kuelzow as high priestess of Bethsaida Shrine number 43, White Shrine of Jerusalem on Thursday evening, March 24, at the Evanston Masonic temple. Mrs. Kuelzow is a past matron and is now serving as president of the Past Matrons club of Wilmette. Bethsaida shrine will be the ninth organization she has served as presiding officer. The installation is public.

Monday evening was "Friends night," with the following serving as officers: Mrs. Arnold Svebilus, matron of Pentalpha chapter, as matron, Philip Eichling patron of the same chapter, as patron; and serving in the same office they hold in their own chapters, William Heaney, associate patron of Campbell chapter, Highland Park; Mrs. Katherine Parrish, secretary of Pentalpha chapter; Mrs. Mary Mathieson, treasurer of the same chapter; Mrs. Dorothy Thomson, conductress of Campbell chapter; Mrs. Lena McKinstry, associate conductress of Lincolnwood, Evanston, chapter.

Mrs. Hazel Wissman, matron of Winnetka chapter, served as chaplain; Mrs. Ina J. Meyers, as marshal; Myrtle Hopkins as organist; Mrs. Edgar A. Fellers, as soloist. Mrs. Mary Kinder of Pentalpha, as Adah; Mrs. Evangie Morgan as Ruth; Mrs. Agnes Stephens, Esther of Pentalpha chapter, as Esther; Mrs. Gertrude Ackermann as Martha; Orville Jones, sentinel; Herman C. Brichacek, flag bearer.

Mrs. Anne B. Klug, matron of Austin, was guest of honor. Grand representatives, Grand chapter committees, Grand lecturers, matrons and patrons, and thirty past matrons and patrons were present. A large delegation from Evanston accompanied its officers. A memorial of the death of Nettie Cox Kenner, grand secretary of Illinois and honorary member of Wilmette chapter was read by Mrs. Roy McIlrath, matron of the local chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Jones attended the meeting of the Masonic Hospital association and made a report and asked that Wilmette chapter contribute sheets and squares to the hospital, a request that was granted.

Mrs. Mary W. Jones, Mrs. Robert McClure and Mrs. Charles Kunzelman assisted Mrs. Melville Werner at a bridge party on March 17, at the latter's home, an event that was a success financially and socially. E. G. P.

Jewish Council Calendar

A board meeting Monday, March 28, at 10 o'clock, will inaugurate next week's events for the National Council of Jewish Women, Chicago section. On Friday, April 1, Mrs. Felix A. Levy will speak at 11 o'clock at a meeting of the Jewish Events class. At 1:30 o'clock, Mrs. Merton Metcalf will review "Harken Unto the Voice," by Franz Werfel. This is the final book review of the year. Tea will be served. The meetings are held in Room 504, 185 North Wabash avenue.

At Kenilworth Club

An April Fool dinner dance takes place Friday evening of this week at the Kenilworth club for members and their guests. Members of the committee are Mrs. John H. Lawson, Mrs. William W. Sears, Mrs. Austin D. Sturtevant. Music will be by Johnny Jones.

Bob Flint, 233 Warwick road, is to spend his two-week spring vacation from the Lawrenceville Preparatory school in New Jersey, at his home.

Visits Daughter

Mrs. A. B. Milford, 256 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, has returned to her home after spending two months with her daughter, Mrs. S. E. Perkins of Indianapolis. Mrs. Milford and Mrs. Perkins spent a month at Fairhope, Ala.

UPHOLSTERING

Finest Workmanship
Moderate Prices

DAVIS FURNITURE

721 Wain St., Evanston Tel. 7210

Strawberry-patch or black doeskin. 12.75

"Black Magic" doeskin, white lacing. 12.75

Eventful Debut of Footwear by Customcraft

Kidskin in strawberry-patch or parisienne blue. 12.75

Whirlwind mesh. Black or Navy. 12.75

Black patent or blue doeskin. Perforated. 14.75

Distinguished, hand-sewn shoes created and made exclusively for Joseph. Favorites of exquisitely groomed women of the continent . . . brought by Joseph for the first time to the discriminating women of the middle west. You'll welcome our brilliant collection for immediate wear.

JOSEPH SALON SHOES

EVANSTON OAK PARK
1629 Orrington 1113 Lake Street

SOUTH SHORE
2374 E. Seventy-First