FIFTH IN FOUR STATES

The latest bulletin from the office of Region 7 received this week indicates that the North Shore Area council, one of 87 councils, stands fifth in membership.

The larger councils are Chicago, Detroit, Milwaukee, and Indianapolis in this order. Region 7 comprises four states, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Wisconsin.

First Aid Meet

At the sectional first aid meet with championship teams from the four councils, Oak Park area, Northwest Suburban, Evanston, and North Shore Area councils participating this last Saturday evening at Roosevelt grammar school in River Forest, the team from Highwood, Troop 37, won the contest. Second place went to Northwest Suburban, third place to Evanston, and fourth place to Oak Park.

The personnel of this first aid team is as follows: Jim Muzik, captain; Evan Dever, Alex Haincheck, Frank Mordini and Loren Smith.

L. W. Smith of Highwood trained this team.

This team now goes to Chicago Saturday afternoon, April 2, to compete in the divisional meet at the LaSalle hotel in the semi-finals. The finals will be held the same evening at the LaSalle hotel. Many supporters of the North Shore Area council's winning troop are accompanying the team.

Scoutleaders to Meet

Tuesday, April 5 is the date set for a meeting of scoutmasters and their assistants at the Shawnee Country club in Wilmette. The program is as follows: from 5 to 7 p. m. a splash party, then follows the dinner. After the dinner the business will be a discussion on making plans for outdoor activities including Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan. Invited to the meeting are the scoutmasters and their assistants, skippers and their mates, and the commissioners of the different districts.

Visit Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan

The dates have been set for the annual spring trip to Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan for scouters of the council. About 80 men will be leaving Friday afternoon or evening, April 29. The group will spend two days in camp returning Sunday afternoon, May 1. All registered scouters interested in Camp Ma-Ka-Ja-Wan are welcome to make this trip which is one of the highlights of scouters fellowship throughout the year.

COMPOSER

Theatrical Photo

Announcement is made by Phi Mu Gamma, national professional allied arts fraternity, that Richard Czerwonky, violin virtuoso, composer, and conductor of the Chicago Philharmonic orchestra, will soon be initiated as an honorary member of the organization. Mr. Czerwonky is the father of Joachim Czerwonky of 1015 Green Bay road, Wilmette.

Known for his concerto in D major for violin, he has composed a new arrangement of the Strauss "Blue Danube Waltz" which will be played for the first time in Chicago on Tuesday evening, March 29, at Thorne hall in Chicago as a part of the second of a series of concerts by the De Paul University Symphony orchestra.

Also included in the musician's compositions are three symphonic tone-poems for full orchestra, two string quartets, a piano quintet, a number of violin solos, songs and special arrangements of old favorites. Having made his debut in 1906 at the Berlin Singakademie, he has just completed his twenty-fifth year of performance both here and abroad.

Born at Birnbaum, Germany, he studied with Florian Zajic, later with Andreas Moser, and finally with the great Joachim in Berlin. In 1907, he toured Germany, France, Sweden, Holland, Russia and other European countries. Since 1918 he has been director of the violin department of the Bush conservatory, has been honored as conductor of the Chicago Philharmonic orchestra, and makes appearances as soloist.

On Tuesday evening, March 29, the Symphony concert at Thorne Hall will include Mozart's Eine kleine Nachtmusik (for String Orchestra), Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto in E Minor, Yon's Concerto Gregoriano for organ and orchestra, Tschaikowsky's Overture—Fantasy "Romeo and Juliet," Saint-Saens' Piano Concerto in G Minor, Donizetti's Recitative and Aria—O Mio Fernando from "La Favorita" and as was mentioned above, his own original arrangement of the Strauss Blue Danube Waltz.

AUNT DIES

Miss A. L. McMahon of the McMahon Millinery shop, 1152 Wilmette avenue, was called to Vinita, Okla., recently because of the death of an aunt, Mrs. Rettia McAtaa, with whom she had lived for several years. Miss McMahon returned last week with her sister, Mrs. C. L. Decker of Congress Park.

North Shore Matches Slated for April 2, 3

With 230 entries, competition was rife in the first Midwest badminton association championship tournament held at the Evanston Township High school, Saturday and Sunday, and many of the winners are leaving this weekend to participate in the national tournament at Philadelphia, March 24, 25 and 26.

Others are in training for the fourth annual North Shore tournament to be played at New Trier High school, Saturday and Sunday, April 2 and 3. Seven courts are available at New Trier. Only members of the North Shore association in which there are 12 clubs and approximately 1,000 players, will be eligible for participation in this meet. Courtney Davis, of Kenilworth, is tournament chairman.
