

AMUSEMENT SEEKERS

New Hollywood Fashion

Joan Crawford, star of "The Bride Wore Red" and "Mannequin," stops work on current picture at MGM studios long enough for tea with Dorothy Arzner, director. The English custom has been taken up by Hollywood.

Thank You, Mr. Moto. (20th Century-Fox). Cast: Peter Lorre, Thomas Beck, Pauline Frederick, Jayne Regan, Sidney Blackmer, Sig Ruman, John Carradine, William Von Bricken, Nedda Harrigan, Philip Ahn, John Bleifer. A complicated plot in a Chinese scene fails to daunt the imperturbable Mr. Moto, clever Japanese detective, who tracks down hidden scrolls and finishes off the villain. Special mention has been given by the reviewers to the work of Pauline Frederick as the Chinese princess.

You're a Sweetheart. (Universal.) Directed by David Butler, with Alice Faye, George Murphy, Ken Murray, Andy Devine. Gorgeous settings, lovely costumes, clever staging, dancing and singing, a good story, well told, and intelligent interpretations by members of the cast combine to furnish a splendid family film. The story tells of the difficulties encountered by a producer in putting on his show and the assistance given by the Arizona millionaire impersonated by George Murphy.

You're Only Young Once. (MGM.) With Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Fay Holden, and Cecilia Parker. Mickey, as usual, walks off with most of the honors in this film which abounds with laughs and tears. It's about a family of four who set off to a vacation in Catalina island only to have the children each become involved in exciting love adventures. It's a film of the entirely "wholesome" variety.

Change of Heart. (20th Century-Fox.) Cast: Gloria Stuart, Michael Whalen, Jane Darwell, Lyle Talbot. This is the story of how love finds a way to take the conceit out of a swelled-head young executive. Gloria Stuart is the young lady who performs the trick, and Michael Whalen is the one who profits thereby.

BROWN NAIL POLISH
Because Cecil B. De Mille, who discovered and cast her opposite Fredric March in "The Buccaneer," abhors red fingernails, Franciska Gaal is wearing a brownish polish called "Suez."

FOUR YEARS A SOLDIER
Melville Cooper left a brilliant stage career to serve four years with the British forces during the World war. He spent a year of that time in a German prison camp.

ATHLETIC LEADER

Ten years ago, Dennis O'Keefe was the athletic Mickey Rooney of Hollywood. Just as Mickey, now appearing in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Judge Hardy's Children," captains the juvenile football team, the M-G-M Lions, O'Keefe used to captain the juvenile football team, the Hollywood Tigers.

HEARTY APPETITES

Eleven Great Danes working in "Four's a Crowd" at Warner Bros. total 1,564 pounds. They manage to get away with a hundred pounds of meat and other canine delicacies every day.

COLLECTS SCARABS

Since Humphrey Bogart revealed that he carries a scarab for luck, so many fans have sent him scarabs that he has one of the most unusual collections in the country.
