

Temple Players Will Offer "Breadwinner," Maugham Play, Sunday

Should parents be painlessly disposed of at the age of 40? Just what does a man owe to his wife and children? And have you ever felt the urge to "chuck it all," leave home, business and family and start life anew?

These are three of the questions answered by "The Breadwinner," a three-act play by Somerset Maugham. A fast-moving comedy, "The Breadwinner" will be presented by the Temple Players of Glencoe Sunday evening, April 3 at 8:30 o'clock in the temple auditorium, Lincoln and Vernon avenues, Glencoe. Against a background of English suburban life "The Breadwinner" deals with the conflict between the War generation grown middle-aged, and their sons and daughters, the post-war generation. The action is continuous, but to rest the audience the curtain falls twice during the performance. An experienced cast of four men and four women plays "The Breadwinner" which is directed by Kurt Wohlge-muth, well known in dramatic circles here and abroad.

Members of the cast are: Leonard Rosenblatt, Ralph Klemperer, Marc Aisner, Marshall Wais, Zelda Siegel, Dina Hartmann, Selma Citron, and Carol Cohn.

Dorothy Siegel is production manager, assisted by Roy Simon, Eugene Weinberg and Hugo Hartmann, Jr. Mildred Fagen is in charge of properties. Stanton Meyer is in charge of publicity and Milton Klee is directing ticket sales.

Christian Science Churches

"Reality" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday March 27.

The golden text was, "They that trust in the Lord shall be as mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever" (Psalms 125:1).

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil" (Proverbs 4:23, 26, 27).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Erroneous belief is destroyed by truth. Change the evidence and that disappears which before seemed real to this false belief and the human consciousness rises higher. Thus the reality of being is attained and man found to be immortal" (p. 297).

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome J. Kenney and their little daughter, Patsy, are moving soon from 410 Prairie avenue to 418 Prairie avenue.
