

Delegate

Moffett Photo

Miss Betty Folsom, 945 Michigan avenue, Wilmette, is vice-president of the sophomore class of St. Mary-of-the-Woods college, St. Mary-of-the-Woods, Ind. She was one of the delegates to the Catholic Youth Leadership convention held at the Morrison hotel in Chicago Saturday and Sunday, March 27 and 28. The sessions of the convention were conducted by the Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S. J., nationally known leader of youth and editor of The Queen's Work, members of whose staff assisted him, as did the Rev. M. Carabine, S. J., head of Cisca. Two-thousand students from the mid-western states attended the convention.

Month's Trip Is Wedding Anniversary Celebration

As an eighteenth wedding anniversary celebration, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Eisenberg of 832 Sheridan road took a month's trip west. They were in Los Angeles and Palm Springs, where they stopped at the Ambassador hotel. While in Los Angeles they visited the MGM studios, through which Mr. Eisenberg's brother, Edward Eisenberg, police sergeant, took them, as well as to other points of interest. They went west on the thirty-nine hour streamline train of the Santa Fe road, and stopped at New Mexico. They returned by way of Tucson.

Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Orville G. Dailey, 618 Tenth street, had as their guests over a recent week-end Mrs. Daily's father, Grant W. Dewey of Chicago. Her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dewey, also of Chicago, were their guests at a recent dinner party, which was in the nature of a farewell, for Mr. and Mrs. Dewey are leaving soon for Hollywood.

Plan Eastern Trip

Next week, during the spring vacation, Mrs. Jacques de LaChapelle, 132 Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth, and her two children, Charles and Renee, are taking a motor trip east. They are going to Pennsylvania to join Zo de LaChapelle who will also be having her vacation from Rosemont college.

Circle Members to Entertain Husbands

An evening party is announced by Mrs. Robert W. Maeser, chairman of the Fifth division of the Wilmette Parish Methodist church. The husbands of members are to be entertained on April 8, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rensch, 915 Eleventh street. Those in charge of arrangements and program are Mrs. C. Rollin Smith and Mrs. Scott Ransom. Refreshments are being managed by Mrs. Harry Pifer and Mrs. A. H. Cochran. All members are urged to save the date.

John McKeighan returned Wednesday to his home at 661 Illinois road after a short trip to Washington, D. C., and Arlington, Va.

Garden Club Program

"Seasonable Topics" will be the title for a series of talks to be presented by all the members of the Kenilworth Home and Garden club when the organization holds its April meeting next Monday at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. O. Belt, 202 Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth. Mrs. William F. Freudenreich, the president, will be co-hostess with Mrs. Belt.

Married

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner A. Callanen of Evanston, formerly of Wilmette, announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret Elizabeth, to George Francis Williams, son of George C. Williams of Evanston, at St. Mary's church on March 24.

Money saving beauties!

Belle-Sharmeer Stockings

in leg sizes wear longer because they fit!

They're individually proportioned in width as well as length and foot size so they'll fit your legs exactly. And because they fit so perfectly they give your legs more beauty and give you a great deal more wear. Wear "Brev" if you're small; "Modite" if you're medium; and "Duchess" if you're tall.

$1 to $1.65

3 pairs $2.85 3 pairs $4.70

exclusive at Stevens in Evanston

EDGAR A. STEVENS, Inc.

Evanston

It's Suede!

And it's from our Autographed Hat Bar—one of the cleverest and most flattering toppers you can wear—in lovely soft suede in luscious flower shades and also in dark colors.

$2.95

First Floor

It's Pure Silk!

It's our best loved blouse — everyone is buying it and buying it in several colors. And no wonder for it's exquisitely tailored of PURE SILK with great attention to the little tailoring details that give a blouse that well bred expensive look. Notice the perfection of stitching, the beautifully shaped yoke back, the elegant pearl buttons — and then realize the blouse is only

$3.95

Second Floor

EDGAR A. STEVENS, Inc. Evanston