GO TO FLORIDA

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Figueira, 411 Laurel avenue, with Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Weiss, friends from Chicago, are leaving Friday to spend three weeks in Florida. The party will go down together by train, and the Figueiras will ship their car and then motor home by themselves. They plan to stop at Miami Beach, do some deep sea fishing, and to see as much of the state as possible.

END MOTOR TRIP SOUTH

Mrs. F. J. Scheidenhelm of 804 Forest avenue, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Frances, and Mrs. J. B. Olwin of 820 Lake avenue, returned home Saturday from a ten-day motor trip in the south. They went to Natchez, Miss., for the spring pilgrimage, visiting old homes and gardens, and then continued on to Mobile and New Orleans.

VISIT IN KENILWORTH

Recent house guests of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Fuermann of Kenilworth have been the former's sister, Mrs. William B. Pearn, who has returned to her home in Baltimore after a stay of two weeks, and Mrs. A. W. Zendt and son, who have gone back to Los Angeles.

Alumni of Cornell College to Banquet

The Cornell College Alumni club of Chicago will hold its annual banquet and meeting Thursday night, April 7, in the Marine dining room of the Edgewater Beach hotel.

Dr. H. J. Burgstahler, president of the college at Mount Vernon, Iowa, will be the guest speaker. The college, which has just dedicated its new Memorial Art building, is famous throughout the Middle West for its May Music Festival where the Chicago Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Dr. Frederick Stock, for over thirty years has made its only appearance west of the Mississippi.

Edwin G. Martin, 614 Church street, Evanston, is the chairman of the Alumni committee, and Dr. F. M. Darling, 108 North State street, Chicago, is the executive secretary. Both are in charge of reservations for the banquet.
