

YOU CAN KNOW

A great deal about the men you vote for, and it is exceedingly important that you do know them before the

Primary Election April 12

So that you can nominate County Commissioners who truly represent suburban and rural Cook County.

Your Republican County Commissioners Invite You to Study Their Record

WILLIAM BUSSE
Commissioner

WILLIAM BUSSE was born in Elk Grove Township, and has lived there all his life. He was a deputy sheriff for ten years, and has been a member of the County Board for 36 years, including one term as president. He has also served as president of the Mt. Prospect Village Board and as secretary of the school board for twelve years each. He is chairman of the board of the Mt. Prospect State Bank and is connected with an automobile concern and a hardware store.

GEORGE A. MILLER has lived in Oak Park for the last 36 years, and has been an active member of the County Board for 20 years. Earlier he served in the House of Representatives of the Illinois General Assembly for two terms, as assistant state's attorney, and as member and attorney of the Oak Park Village Board.

GEORGE A.
MILLER
Commissioner

CARL J.
CARLSON
Commissioner

CARL J. CARLSON was born in Blue Island where he now lives, and was educated in the Blue Island public schools. For the past 28 years he has served his community and Cook County as deputy sheriff, police magistrate, and county commissioner. He was the only police magistrate of Blue Island ever to be reelected.

WILLIAM N. ERICKSON was born in Chicago and educated in the Chicago public schools and at Armour Institute of Technology, where he received the degree of Bachelor of Science in mechanical engineering. He has followed the engineering profession, and has been the head of a large laundry for several years. For the past 15 years he has lived in Evanston.

WILLIAM N.
ERICKSON
Commissioner

H. WALLACE
CALDWELL
Commissioner

H. WALLACE CALDWELL was born in Oak Park, where he now lives, and graduated from its elementary and high schools and from Cornell University, where he received a degree in mechanical engineering. He is actively interested in the conveying machinery business founded by his grandfather. Since 1927 he has been a member of the Lincoln Park Board, member and president of the Chicago Board of Education, and a member of the county board.

FOR HOME RULE