Green and White Forms Background for Wedding Service

A green background of huckleberry, large vases of calla lilies and white stock, and candleabra formed an altar for the wedding ceremony of Miss Thelma Beatrice Mancinelli, daughter of Mrs. Eugene Mancinelli, 1010 Sheridan road, Wilmette, and Dr. Rolland J. Sandee of Waukegan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Sandee of Fond du Lac, Wis., which took place at 8:30 o'clock last Saturday evening at Sigma Alpha Epsilon chapel in Evanston.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. George B. Lake of Highland Park, assisted by the Rev. Richard Matteson of Chicago, before some 250 or 275 guests, a number of them relatives and friends of the bridegroom from Milwaukee, Waukegan, and Fond du Lac. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the chapel hall.

The bride was gowned in white satin, rosepoint lace forming a yoke in the front of the bodice, reaching to the waistline in the back, and also trimming the long puffed sleeves. Her tulle veil fell the length of the long train, and she carried a shower bouquet of gardenias.

Bouffant gowns of lace and net in hyacinth blue and a delicate shade of pink were worn by the attendants who carried bouquets of pink roses and blue sweet peas. Miss Frances Allworth of Wilmette, the maid of honor, was in hyacinth blue, while the bridesmaids, Mrs. George Fairbairn of Wilmette, Miss Margaret Nelson, Miss Eleanor Anderson, and Miss Vera Creales, of Chicago; Miss Mathilde Mancinelli, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Ralph Mancinelli of Wilmette, her sister-in-law, were in pink.

To match their gowns all the bride's attendants wore halos of sweet peas in blue and pink. Mrs. Mancinelli was in hyacinth blue lace for her daughter's wedding, with a gardenia corsage, while Mrs. Sandee, mother of the bridegroom, wore aquamarine taffeta and a shoulder bouquet of tea roses.

Serving as best man was Robert Miller of Wauwatosa, Wis., and the ushers were Miles Sandee of Fond du Lac, brother of the bridegroom; Arnold Firlie of Fond du Lac, George Fairbairn, Eugene Mancinelli of Wilmette, brother of the bride; Henry Rhyon of Waukegan, and Aristedes Refakes of Chicago.

A very small but important member of the wedding party was Joan Mancinelli, the flower girl and five-year-old niece of the bride. She was dressed in a long yellow taffeta frock and wore a halo of spring flowers in her hair.

Dr. Sandee and his bride left Monday for Mexico where they will spend a month, and when they return will be at home in Waukegan after May 1.
