

Major Griffith Will Address Rotarians

Major John L. Griffith, commissioner of the Midwest Conference, the Big Ten, will be the speaker at an inter-city meeting of North Shore Rotary clubs to be held at the Shawnee Country club Tuesday evening, May 3, at 6:30 o'clock.

This Ladies Night affair is sponsored by the Rotary clubs of Glencoe, Winnetka and Wilmette.

Master of ceremonies will be the Rev. E. Ashley Gerhard, rector of Christ church, Winnetka, a member of the Winnetka club.

Special music will be provided by Hugo Brandt, internationally known pianist, and the New Trier High school Boys' Octet.

Aviation Leaders to Speak at Highland Park

Major R. W. Schroeder, 2126 Thornwood avenue, Wilmette, vice-president of the United Airlines, will speak on aviation before a group of business men at a meeting at the Highland Park Presbyterian church on Friday of this week. In observance of Army Day, Major Schroeder was heard over radio station WENR on Sunday. He told of his famous record in altitude work which took place just eighteen years ago. William A. Patterson, president of the United Airlines, 162 Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth, will also be present at the meeting Friday and will say a few words.

Robert Henderson, who is attending Princeton university, and his brother, Howard, a student at Western Military academy at Alton, Ill., sons of Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Henderson of Wilmette, are home this week for their spring vacation.

ECONOMY SHOP

Have you discovered, in the course of spring cleaning, that you have a number of dishes that don't seem to belong to sets, or that you aren't going to use any more? The Economy Shop, an enterprise of the Woman's club of Wilmette, has had many requests for dishes, during the past few days and it is having a difficult time supplying them. The shop, you know, is located at 1135 Greenleaf avenue. Marian Kremer, chairman.

Northwest Men's Club Visit Board Session

Members of the Northwest Men's club, of which J. H. Worel, 2019 Beechwood avenue, is president, and Joseph E. Barton, 2016 Thornwood avenue, secretary, were the guests of the Village board at its regular meeting Tuesday night. Some thirty-five members of the club were present, and listened with interest to the proceedings of the board.

Before adjournment of the board a number of the club members and Village officials made brief talks, and following the adjournment the club used the council chamber for its regular monthly meeting.

At the close of its session, the club president invited the Village officials to join the members in refreshments at the Wilmette Cafe.

RETURN FROM SOUTH

Carol Kahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Kahn, 1510 Highland avenue, returned recently with her parents from a month's stay in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and celebrated her twelfth birthday Saturday, March 26, with a party for several school friends.
