

INITIATION

Three Local Educators Made Members of Fraternity

Eta chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, a fraternity for women leaders in education, held an initiation meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Martha Olsen in Evanston. In the absence of the president, Hazel DuCles Mueller, the initiation was conducted by Dr. Louise Farwell Davis of Wilmette.

Those initiated were Miss Clara Baker of the National College of Education, Miss Flora Bowman, principal of the South school in Glencoe, and Miss Sadie Rafferty of the music department of Evanston Township High school.

Among the local members of the organization are Dr. Davis, Dr. Pearl Girdley, Miss Elizabeth Springstun, and Miss Agnes L. Adams, all of the National College of Education; Miss Ruth Whitfield of New Trier High school, Miss Martha Olsen, Evanston kindergarten supervisor; Mrs. Livia Youngquist Peterson of Kenilworth, a teacher in the Winnetka schools, and Miss Matala Brown of the Central school in Wilmette.

May 15 members of Eta chapter will be joined by the members of Iota chapter in Oak Park for a Founders Day tea to be held at 4 o'clock that afternoon at the Orrington hotel in Evanston.

High School Teacher on Wisconsin Staff

Mrs. Elizabeth F. Rehage, member of the faculty of New Trier High school, has been elected one of more than 30 visiting faculty members for the 1938 summer session of the University of Wisconsin, and will teach in the 40th summer school at Wisconsin during the coming summer.

Virtually all of the more than 500 courses of study offered in the 1938 Wisconsin summer session, including those to be taught by Mrs. Rehage, are of academic grade and carry credit toward all degrees regularly offered by the University of Wisconsin.

Mrs. Rehage is scheduled to teach the following courses in the session: contemporary dance (elementary), dance curriculum for secondary schools, and rhythmic form and analysis. These courses are to be taught in the school of education, department of physical education.
