Tuesday, May 28, there will be a May pole dance at Visitation academy given by the children and young women of that institution. Aside from the dance there will be an all day program, with a very elaborate luncheon served at noon.

The Visitation Alumnae auxiliary will hold its annual business meeting at the Mission tearoom, Sheridan road, Chicago, Friday. Officers for the coming year will be elected, at which, it is thought, Mrs. J. P. O'Connor, 822 Seward street, will be elected president.

Mrs. Harlow Kirkpatrick, 1734 Ridge avenue, and children, Anna and Harlow, have gone to Bloomington, Ill., to visit Mr. Kirkpatrick's sister, Mrs. Baker. Mr. Kirkpatrick has gone to Washington, D. C., for a week, after which he will join his family in Bloomington.

The aldermen were victorious in the close game played between teams picked from the Chicaga commissioners and Chicago aldermen at White Sox park, Chicago, Saturday. The score was 8 to 7. The game was for the benefit of the Visitation academy. The bleachers were filled with men, women, boys and girls. Among the spectators were the newsboys of the city, boys of the juvenile court who are under the supervision of Father Quail, and other children from charitable institutions. These children were allowed to witness the game without charge, and they made the most of their opportunity, enjoying to the utmost the game, tug-of-war and other features the afternoon's entertainment afforded. Young women, under the direction of the members of the Visitation Alumnae auxiliary, dressed in white and wearing the colors of the Visitation academy, light and dark green, all over the park sold pennants, songs, candy, cigars, popcorn and soft drinks. How much they realized from their sales individually cannot at this time be ascertained, but counting their profits and the sale of seats the organization made about $1,400. The girls selling the school music were Miss Genevieve Connor and Miss Ethel Jennings. Miss Rosa Emerson, Miss Margaret Walsh and Miss Nida Bradley were among those who sold cigars under the supervision of Mrs. M. G. Geary, of Greenwood Inn. Mrs. Frank A. Hurley had in her charge the Misses May Sullivan, May Foley, Ellis Simmons, Adelia Myron, Mary Carroll, Lillian Anderson and Amy Roberts, who sold candy. Programs were procured from Mrs. George Holman, Mrs. David A. Naughton, the Misses Ruth Donane, Delphine Donahue, Josephine Ryan, Florence Donahue, Marion Holman, Grace McDonough, Cunnie Maloney, Olive Early, Mary G. McDonald and Mary Curran. The committee in charge of pennants were Mrs. J. P. McCann, chairman, Miss Mayme McCann, Miss Marie McGowan, Mrs. J. P. Byrnes, Miss Cora Connors, Miss Eunice McGill, Miss Dorothy Purcell, Miss Margorie Lee, Miss Ruth Bariston, Miss Marie Bariston, Miss Alice Burns, Miss Fannie Flageole, Miss Louise Flageole and Miss Ruth Connor. The committee in charge of the game were Mrs. R. H. McColl, president of the Visitation Alumnae auxiliary, Mesdames George P. Gubbins, John T. Connery, Frank A. Hurley, Joseph E. Bidwill, Sr., W. J. Delaney, William Schiligen, Archibald McKinley, J. P. McCann, J. W. O'Connor and George A. Hoburan.

A short parliamentary drill was conducted by Chas Travis.

On last Thursday evening Pentalpha chapter, No. 53, O. E. S., celebrated its eighth birthday. In spite of the bad weather about 125 members and friends were present. A very delightful program had been arranged by the social committee. Miss Gladys Boesch and Miss Martha Pape opened the program with a number of vocal selections, rendered in a most pleasing and charming manner. These were followed by two violin solos played by Mrs. John Hebblethwaite, who was accompanied by her daughter Anna. The next feature on the program, and that which the committee so carefully kept for a surprise to all, was a one act play given by the Dramatic club of Washington school. The play was entitled "Lady Gregory's Sketch of Spreading the News." Too much praise cannot be given to the young folks who took part in the play. A banquet followed the entertainment, and the room which had been fitted for the spread was beautifully decorated. At the head table with its birthday cake, surrounded by eight candles, and its lavender decorations, were the matron and patron and the past matrons and patrons of the chapter. There were five other tables, each decorated in one color of the order, blue, yellow, white, green and red. A toast was given by Mrs. Ryden, worthy matron, to the past matrons and patrons of Pentalpha chapter. It was unanimously agreed that the birthday party was a great success.

Start a Sturdy Lawn

A lawn that will stay beautiful through heat, cold and drought

NOTICE your neighbors' lawns this spring. Some are coming along fine, look green and thick already. Others are scrawny and worn out, with bare spots here and there. The grass isn't sturdy enough to stand the frost. Insure yourself of a thick, thrifty lawn that will resist the ravages of heat, cold and drought and hard usage by planting

KALAKA

Sterilized grass seed

Kalaka is a selected mixture of choicest grass seed. Grows a turf that is thick and sturdy. To insure sure and quick germination, this seed is mixed with rich manure in pulverized form. It fairly shoots up to form a close knit turf of surprising hardiness.
