

Social Happenings in Wilmette and Kenilworth by Ruth Risley

ONE of the most attractive of the early Spring weddings will be solemnized tomorrow evening in the Congregational church, when Miss Virginia Ruth Olwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Brandt Olwin, will be united in marriage to Mr. John Rutherford Nicholson of Chicago. Reverend Stephen A. Lloyd will read the service at eight-thirty o'clock.

Attending Miss Olwin as maid of honor will be Miss Katherine Scheidenhelm of this village and the bridesmaids will include Miss Betty Dafter of Evanston, the Misses Margaret Couffer and Frances Cutler of Wilmette and Miss Laura Wilson of East Orange, N. J. Mr. Coe Adams of Chicago will attend the bridegroom as best man, and the ushers will be Mr. Charles Brown, Mr. William Avirett and Dr. Vincent O'Connor of Chicago, Mr. Roger Chapin of Springfield, Ill., Mr. Willis Perkins of Detroit, Mich., and Mr. Henry Cooper of Evanston. Mrs. John Annen of Chicago will play the wedding march.

Following the ceremony there will be a large reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Olwin, 820 Lake avenue. Following an extended wedding trip, the young couple will return to Evanston to make their home.

Announcement is made of the marriage of Mrs. Beatrice Billings Kennedy to Donald Frederick Brigham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forrey of 1610 Washington avenue. The wedding took place on Saturday, March 26, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Billings, in Chillicothe, O. Mr. and Mrs. Brigham are making a short trip in the west and upon their return will make their home in Chillicothe. Mr. Brigham served overseas with Reilly's Bucks, during the war.

The wedding of Miss Lorraine McCue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCue, to John Sumner Crossley of Homestead, Pa., took place on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 631 Washington avenue. The ceremony, at eighty-thirty o'clock, was performed by the Rev. Stephen A. Lloyd of the Congregational church. Mr. Clarence Calloway of Homestead served the bridegroom as best man.

The bride who was given away by her father, wore a gown of moonlight satin, and chantilly lace. The tulle veil did not cover the head, but fell from the wreath of orange blossoms to the edge of the full court train. The bridal bouquet was a shower of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Frederick Armstrong, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, wore a gown of silver cloth and lavender chiffon, with white beaded trimmings. She carried an arm bouquet of Aaron Ward roses and lilies of the valley. Another sister, Miss Margaret McCue, as maid of honor, wore a frock of changeable green and silver taffeta, and carried a bouquet of lavender and pink sweet peas. Eight school friends of the bride, the Misses Mary Crossley, sister of the groom, Lillian Simpson, Felicia Urner, Margaret Ellen Northland, Mary Frances Schedell, Julia Kries, Ora Whitley and Dorothy Anderson, in attractive evening gowns of the new spring shades, formed an archway with ropes of smilax under which the bridal party stood.

The decorations in the home were in southern smilax, roses, spring flowers and palm and ferns.

Mr. and Mrs. Crossley will be at home after May 1 at 6612 N. Ashland avenue, Rogers Park.

Mrs. Joseph J. Siddall of Wilmette chairman of the Publicity committee of the Arden Shore association, gave a luncheon at the North Shore hotel on Thursday of this week for the members of her committee.

The following women comprise the committee: Mrs. Eugene H. Garnett, Evanston; Mrs. Mark Cresap, Kenilworth; Mrs. Marcus D. Richards, Winnetka; Mrs. William V. Schnur, Glencoe; Mrs. Orrin E. Keller, Ravinia; Mrs. Henry Glidden, Highland Park; Mrs. W. E. Casselberry, Lake Forest; Mrs. John C. Baker, Lake Bluff.

Proceeds of another delightful musical evening amounting to $180, have been turned over the European Relief fund this week. The affair was held on Tuesday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Koretz in Evanston, and the guests included many music lovers from our north shore towns. The artists who presented a most interesting program were Mrs. Albert Pick Jr. of Winnetka, pianist; Mrs. Hugh Waterstone, soprano, and Miss Lorraine Ernst, a sixteen year old violinist of remarkable ability. Assisting Mrs. Koretz on this occasion was Mrs. Emmanuel Kinsteler of Wilmette.

The Auxiliary of the Woman's Catholic club is giving an informal dance at the North Shore hotel on Friday evening, April 8, for the benefit of St. Catherine's home. Among those of the younger set of the north shore interested in this affair are the Misses Mary and Theresa McArdle, Catherine Crush, Florence Cook, Edna Seng, Rose Millian, Elizabeth Kircheng and Gertrude and Marie O'Connell. Mrs. John E. Cawkwell is chairman of the auxiliary.

The Wharton Clays will return to the north shore April 4th after an extended trip through Europe. They left late last year with their two children and went directly to the Riviera, leaving the children there and going on to Rome.

Mr. Clay returned via Paris and London, and Mrs. Clay extended her trip down into Southern Italy, including Switzerland and the regions of Germany occupied by the Allies.

They will again live in the James Dulan house at 1330 Sheridan road for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Forrey of 1610 Washington avenue attended the wedding of their son, Mr. Donald F. Brigham, in Chillicothe, O., on Saturday last. Mr. Forrey returned to the village on Wednesday, but Mrs. Forrey stopped en route in Detroit, Mich., for a visit with friends.

Among the prenuptial affairs given for Miss Virginia Olwin recently was a matinee followed by a tea at the Drake given by Mrs. George W. Kibby, and a buffet supper given by Miss Margaret Dingee. Mr. and Mrs. Olwin will give the bridal dinner this evening at the Edgewater Beach hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Hutson and son, Bradford, of 1112 Elmwood avenue have returned from a ten days' stay at French Lick Springs, Ind.

Attention is called to members of the Woman's club and their friends who are planning to attend the plays to be given by the Young Woman's Auxiliary, in the change of date from Wednesday, April 6, to Tuesday evening, April 5.

The Woman's Guild of St. Augustine's church will hold a Spring dance on Wednesday evening, April 13, at the Ouilmette Country club. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Howard Musson, chairman of the affair, Mrs. Alan Crower or Mrs. T. H. Maddock.

On Thursday of this week, Miss Theresa McArdle of 111 Broadway avenue, entertained in honor of Miss Marie Irene Dunn, whose marriage to James Hugh Sevin of Tulsa, Okla., will take place on April 6, at Corpus Christian church, Chicago.

The Reading Circle will meet with Mrs. J. Melville Brown, 738 Eleventh street, on Monday, April 4, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Willard H. Thayer, 522 Central avenue, left yesterday to spend a week with friends in Janesville, Wis.
