

In the Summer of '02 Jazz in the Park was able to present seven different groups from the Besser Chorus to Country Rock to Jazz to Country to Bluegrass at the City of Alpena bandshell.

We are sponsoring indoor musical fundraisers in the cooler months so we can present free concerts at the City of Alpena bandshell in the summer. Watch our website for all details.

alpena-arts.org

2 for one price ! Thank you for coming.

Sound coordinated by
Bryan Mousseau, Mark Hamann,
Dave Wagner

Publicity by
Brian Rondeau, Jessica Rondeau
Corky Gates, Maggie Lamb

Musician coordination
Chris Douglas, Greg Adamus, Corky Gates

Graphics
Jerry Lamb, Mark Hamann

Welcome to new board member:
Pete Madsen

Jazz in the Park goes to college

Friday, January 24, 2003

Featuring Jazz Planet

Jazz Planet was formed in 1996 as a musical combo specializing in jazz but their repertoire has expanded to include more blues and swing music. During the concert there will be a special, featuring Sinatra melodies showcasing Jim LaCross and selections from the popular soundtrack of "Sleepless in Seattle" and listen for the duet between LaCross and Casey Makela "Makin Whoopie"

Casey Makela joined the group three years ago and her vocal magic has added more depth and an expanded range to the group.

Steve Tongue, pianist, is also the coordinator of the group. He is thrilled to be able to play the grand piano here tonight.

Saul Saretsky just plays on and on. Drumming since he was 13 he has played with every form of music group in the area.

Phil Cook started his love of music at Alpena Schools, left to further his musical education and returned to teach English and continue playing in Alpena

Jim LaCross can be counted on. What an amazing talent this crazy guy shares as his grandchildren attest to.