

Circle K To Boost Activities

"ACC does not have enough social life, and Circle K Club hopes to do something about it," states Jeff Brasie, Club President.

Among the services the Circle K Club will undertake this year, is that of sponsoring dances during the coming months. The first of these dances was held on October 26 from 9:00 to 12:00 P.M. at the Besser Junior High School. A local band "The Cobras," was engaged, and the key theme for decoration turned to Halloween.

This project was an attempt to get ACC students to take part in more college functions. Circle K, made up of male college students interested in community and college service, plans to do more in the near future to promote the social activities at ACC.

Honorary Society

Approximately twenty-two sophomores comprise this semester's Phi Theta Kappa honorary fraternity.

Officers of the society are Wayne Brumaghim, President; Fred Neumann, Vice President; Linda Standen, Secretary; and Pat Derry, Treasurer.

Meetings are held at least once a month under the sponsorship of Mrs. Hartwick and Mr. Moreau.

Activities this far in the year have included an October initiation and a hay ride for all members and their guests. Future plans include a possible sleigh ride and remus.

On The Scene . . .

Apologies extended to Coach McPhillips . . . he is happily married . . . Coffee time: Mr. Garlitz has a solution for the cup shortage that seems to occur regularly . . . and his wife is missing one coffee mug . . . Mrs. LaPine said, "There's my neighbor," as Mr. Olness passed by. Not much in the way of speeches but the tone made the few words a wonderful compliment . . . Jim Allyn turned to survey the scene and was surveyed . . . The gentle smile of Marty Hughes and the glad smile of Sue Martindale make the good day better . . . and Mr. Orr survives the furor caused by David MacGregor . . . Paradox of the times: the film "Gospel According To St. Matthew" is the work of a communist and critics have found in it the beauty and eloquence missing in our wide screen Biblical extravaganzas . . . Whiz typist, Dave Smith, was the recipient of the focused attention of a beautiful blonde in royal purple Tuesday night . . . Prominent Alpena Realtors, gathered at the front door of Central Hall for a cigarette break, were an impressive sight that same night . . . Dennis Blair hunches against the cold blasts of November while walking across the Johnson Street scene today and Judy LaMarre waves a smile to passing friends hurrying along. . . . Perhaps Mr. Heimnack will add some feet to that list of status symbols he frequently mentions in soc. class . . . research has linked gout and exceptional ability . . . as Dr. Dunckel said to Ed Bastow and assembly in one of those moments of rapport, "Would you believe? . . . Pat Darry managed a smile even while juggling a sliding stack of books . . . Carl Ackerman said he's had the nickname "Boo" for as long as he can remember . . . In the far lounge, Freshman Class President Steve Voss talked of County League baseball with another baseball fan . . . Math whiz Wayne Brumaghim, president of our chapter of Phi Theta Kappa, brings an absentee member up to date on chapter news while changing class . . . November is the birthday month of a slick little E.I.P. newsletter as well as for E.I.P. notables Dr. Marquard and Mrs. Richey . . . best wishes from On The Scene . . . Terry Schmoltdt is becoming a celebrity of candor . . . Don't ask Maria Skiba for her class notes unless you read shorthand, said an Economics student who missed a class this month . . . Director of Student Affairs, Mr. Ritter, was a "chicken" when the clams were passed at a clam bake recently . . . good thing lobster was also on the scene.

Strange But True

A freshman girl walked into the lounge with sunglasses on one day and one of her freshman friends remarked, "You look like Mr. Van Lare." In all sincerity she asked, "Who's he?" Her friend replied, "Stupid, he's the principal!"

We wonder if perhaps they skipped out of their orientation sessions.
