

ACC offers safety training

An industrial safety training called "Confined Space Rescue and Entry" for local company employees took place at the college March 1-2. Safety trainer, Bob Crone showed particiapants various methods. of getting out of a confined space. Hands on learning included reinactment of real life situations using rope, and safety harnesses.

Photos by Jocelyn Haske