

Dirty Dozen cleans up season with spotless record: 6-0

by Ken Lechtanski

Hail to the victors ! The Dirty Dozen finished their season last week with a spotless 6-0 mark to clinch the Intramural flag football title.

As the rest of the league heads into the final week of the regular season, the 12-Packers have a lock on second with a 4-1 tally. Then follows a bitter dogfight for third with the Raiders, Bromund's, Team 6, and the Dorm Dudes all tied with identical 2-3 records. The Enforcers continue to flounder in last place with a hopeless 0-5 season to round out the teams.

After the regular season is finished the top four teams will compete in a playoff to determine a post-season champion.

Following is a wrap up of the action which took place two weeks ago with the 12-Packers drawing a bye.

Dirty Dozen 30, Raiders 6

The Dirty Dozen opened the scoring when quarterback John Jahnsen ran the football in for a 6-0 start. The Raiders marched back and tied the game on a touchdown pass to Brett Gromley. Then the Dirty Dozen showed why they are number one as Scott Hetzner took the ensuing kick-off the length of the field to put them ahead for good at 12-6. Hetzner scored again on a run to end the half at 18-6. The second half was totally dominated by the Dirty Dozen as Brad Schem capped a drive and Hetzner scored once more to finish his second consecutive three-touchdown game to end the contest.

Dorm Dudes 12, Bromund's 0

The Dorm Dudes notched their first victory of the season by using a staunch defense to shut out Bromund's team. The "Dudes" scored once in the first half on a pass to Steve Kueffner to lead 6-0. They closed out the scoring on a second half run by Kent Shantz to provide the final margin.

Team "6" 24, Enforcers 18

Playing in frigid temperatures, the two teams provided the most exciting game of the season yet. Team 6 scored first on a pass to John Silvia to lead 6-0. They took to the air again as Dave Jolly hauled in another pass to increase the spread to 12-0. The Enforcers refused to die as Jim Adamski caught a TD to end the half at 12-6. Gerald Karsten tied the game on a quarterback sneak early in the second half. Dave Perry bolted into the endzone to pull Team 6 back ahead 18-12. The stubborn Enforcers tied the game once again as Lowell Lamoreau ran it in to deadlock the game at 18-18. The game ended that way and the two teams went into the first overtime of the year. The game finally ended in the second overtime period as Dave Perry stormed in for his second touchdown to finish the marathon game.

Now a look at last weeks action with Bromund's not having to play.

Dorm Dudes 15, Team "6" 12

Team 6 scored early in the cliff-hanger on a run by Rich Richman to go out in front 6-0. A run by Byron Sinclair tied the game for the Dorm Dudes and at the half it was 6-6. Another run by Rich Richman gave the lead back to Team 6 12-6. The score tightened as the Dorm Dudes scored a safety to make it 12-8. Then on the last play of the game Byron Sinclair ran in his second touchdown to win the game. The conversion pass to Steve Kueffner was good to produce the final score.

12-Packers 24, Raiders 13

Brett Gromley returned the opening kick off all the way to give the Raiders a quick lead. The conversion was good on a pass to Steve Sentiz to put the Raiders up 7-0. Paul Gilmet scored two consecutive touchdowns on a run and pass respectively to pull the 12-Packers ahead 12-7. Roger Pauley caught a pass for six and at the half it was the "Pack" ahead 18-7. Forest Hudson took a pass in for the Raiders and it was 18-13. Gilmet scored his third touchdown and put the game away at 24-13.

Dirty Dozen won on a forfeit by the Enforcers.

Wrestling Club pins body and soul

by Lori Melville

The ACC Wrestling Club aims to do more than merely build biceps. Wrestling also involves a philosophy. The strength of the club lies in unity in the mental and physical sense.

Although the club has just been organized, meets with other community colleges have been scheduled. The first meet is an invitational at Muskegon Community College.

Club meetings are held weekly on Thursday nights from 7:00-9:00 in the Alpena High School wrestling room. Fifteen members were present including Ted Jacob, president; Jim Richardson, vice-president; Rich Lamas, secretary; and Rich La May, treasurer.

Muscles they have, but money they don't. Anyone wishing to support the Wrestling Club may contribute money to wrestling at the Student Activities Center, VLH, in care of club treasurer, Rich LaMay.
