

STUDENT SERVICES

A LIBRARY PLUS

The library begins the new school year with changes and additions. The library staff would like to welcome their new staff member, Kelly Brilinski. Kelly was a work study student in the library for two years prior to being hired as library technician.

Mr. Tetzlaff, the director of the library, asks that any student needing help in the library should feel free to ask the new library technician or himself. The library has new audio visual equipment, and a computer generated card catalog is in the works for the audio visuals.

Students and faculty can borrow software for use on campus. Service Groups can also borrow software but are liable for any damage to the software. Transparencs for the overhead projector are priced at .25. Students and faculty can have transparencs made if they desire to do so.

The library has twenty-one new soft chairs to make studying more comfortable, and the library also provides a silent room for quiet studying.

Library hours: Monday thru Thursday 8 am. to 8 pm. Firdays 8 am. to 4 pm., and beginning Sept.18th thru Dec.18th the library will be open Sundays 5pm. to 9 pm..

For those students who are uncertain about their career goals should also seek out the placement office to explore their options.

CREDIT THROUGH EXPERIENCE

Alpena Community College students are now able to gain college credit through work experience with internships. Internships are actual jobs for students who want to explore career and interest areas.

Students experience interviews, professional guidance, individual counseling, on-the-job training, report writing and evaluations.

One to four credits are earned towards Associate Degrees at Intern Laura Madsen with Mitch Irwin and his Coordinator Todd Main regular college tuition fees. Thrity-two hours of actual work is required for one credit hour.

Internships can be developed in all areas, for example, the following are just some of the on-the-job training offered in Liberal Arts and occupational areas, business, graphic arts, law enforcement, education, and secretarial work.

Internships must be planned in advance of registration. For more information contact Vernie Nethercut, AVC ext. 271.
