Foul Throw Shootout Winners

"Foul Throw" winners

A total of 42 brave men and women truned out, on the two announced evenings, at the EAC gym to try their luck at 20 free throw shots, in hopes of winning a Thanksgiving day turkey.

The event was very interesting as the participants competed for the winning prizes. Ties were established in both the men's and women's divisions.

In the men's division, Joe Lancewicz and Devin Hart tied with 16 out of 20 shots made. The two men decided to draw numbers to determine the placement of 2nd and 3rd., the final outcome was, First place winner Jason Splitt who shot 18 out of the 20 free throws and the winner of a Thanksgiving day turkey. Second place went to Joe Lancewicz and the winner of a chicken. Third place went to Devin Hart, who is now the proud winner of an egg.

In the women's division a tie was established between Wendy Huskins and Sherry Hyvarinen for the number one spot Both women made 19 out of the 20 shots given. Since the tie was for the number one position the women had a shoot off to determine who the winner would be.

First place went to Wendy Huskins and winner of a Thanksgiving day turkey. Second place went to Sherry Hyvarinen and winner of a chicken. Third place went to Jamie Landfair with 16 shots out of the 20 given. Landfair is also the proud winner of an egg.

The whole event turned out to be a great success filled with fun and competition. Congratulations to all of this years winners, and hopes for a "Foul Free Throw" next year are high.

Intramurals

Volleyball

Six teams are competing for the championship that will be held January 12, 1989.

Richard Miles, Physical Education Director, stated that as of December 1, the Maulies were in first place. Tied for 2nd place were The Bays and Surgeons of Pain. In 3rd place were the Saps and in fourth place Super Spikers.

Miles stated that when volleyball is finished basketball and bowling will begin. Sign-up dates will be posted around the campus next semester. Miles asks that everyone take some interest in the intramurals.

Some more intramurals that will be offered in the Spring semester are Jazzercise and swimming at the Plaza Pool at Alpena High School. If anyone has questions about the intramurals they can talk to Miles at EAC gym.
