RIVERVIEW TERRACE

Retirement Living

When choosing a retirement home, always look for safety and security, strong management, comfort, good food and people you like. RiverView is privately owned by Greg and Lesleigh Neid and not part of a chain. The personal touch is very much in evidence at RiverView.

Beauty and Comfort

RiverView Terrace is a beautiful heritage building. A few years ago, RiverView won a heritage restoration award from the City of Brantford. Although the front entrance is part of a Brantford heritage building, built in 1871, RiverView is fully compliant with every modern convenience. Two elevators, common area air-conditioning, room air conditioning as required (not everyone wants it) and hotel style telephones are in every room and bathroom. All telephones are directly linked to nurses who carrying cell phones. Fully carpeted throughout for softness and beauty. The dining room is elegant, and the food is wholesome, well presented and delicious.

Physical Security

Security is both physical and operational. First of all, there are physical issues. RiverView has state of the art fire and life safety systems including: sprinklers, smoke and heat detectors, two elevators, telephone links to nursing in all bedrooms and bathrooms. And, security cameras in selected locations. Also, the staff ensure that the building is locked and properly lit at appropriate times. Rounds are at prescribed intervals to minimize risk.

In addition RiverView has "easy swing doors" for each suite to ensure comfort and safety.

Nursing or Retirement Home?

What's the difference? Most don't know the difference. After all, they both have nurses around the clock, prepare meals and snacks, all housekeeping is provided, the doctor comes to both. They both have activity programs and administer medications, baths, etc.

But, nursing homes have a much more intensive nursing program, because in general, the residents are not as well. Since the changes in legislation, nursing homes are not significantly cheaper than retirement homes. RiverView does not offer as much physical care as a nursing home – but more individual care is available if you need it.

Elegant and Homey

On gourmet dinner night we are elegant – invite your friends and family. Food is exceptional and there is always entertainment. The best is when Pete, a RiverView volunteer, decides to cook Italian! At other times, we are just plain folk!

Read, play billiards, enjoy cards, garden with Mary, go for a walk. Watch television with friends in the lounge or in your room. Pick up the paper at the front desk, or open your mail and write back.

Join our reading club and listen to stories by a local writer.

Prices

There are room types and amenities to meet every budget. Stop in anytime and see Greg Neid or Mary Maguire, we would love to show you around.

Veterans Assistance

Additional financial assistance is available for veterans living in retirement homes. We assist with all Department of Veterans Affairs contacts.

Free Lunch!

Join us anytime for lunch! The only way to know is to try us out. (519) 756-4141, ask for Mary or Greg.

Larger Suites

In keeping with the need for larger and improved accommodation, RiverView Terrace has created larger and more open suites with kitchenettes for its customers. RiverView still has all ranges of resident rooms.

Gourmet Dinners

Each month we create a very special dining experience for residents and their families – a three or four course dinner with wine and the very best entertainment. It is an evening out, but right here in our home.

Trial & Convalescent Stays

Post hospital recovery continues to be an important part of the work done by RiverView Terrace. The comfortable surroundings and expert care provide a wonderful recovery setting.

Ask about our new Safe-Line emergency call and portable pendant system.

Nursing homes are not always the answer.

FURNISHING HOMES FOR LESS SINCE 1999

Rosehill Liquidation: Great People, Great Prices, Great Furnishings

Leather and cloth couches, loveseats, chairs, recliners. Natuzzi, Decorest and most manufacturers.

Electric and gas Stoves available in stainless, white or black. Large variety of Washers, Dryers, Dishwashers and Microwaves.

All sizes, all price ranges, all major manufacturers.

Nestled in the middle of north Brantford farmland is one of Brant's most successful liquidation centres.

Rosehill Liquidation is a community oriented business stocked full of furniture, appliances, mattresses, and more at some of the most competitive prices in town-er-near town.

Butch McCooley has been managing the Brantford location since it opened in Waterdown 15 years ago and continues in that role here in Brant.

Stainless, White, Black, 2 door, trio's and 4 doors from all major manufacturers. Bring your measurements.

Seasonal products. Air conditioners, lawn mowers, snow throwers, patio products and much more.

The standard prices are always 10-70% off, with new sales and promotions every week. Staff claim to offer the lowest prices in the region on mattresses, specifically.

With over 12,000 square feet in commercial space, Rosehill Liquidation has a wide selection of large and small appliances, mattresses, as well as furniture for every room of the house.

"Sometimes we get up to eight tractor trailers full of product in a single week, so there is always something new," explains Butch. "That also means that we can sell our stuff for great prices to keep things moving. There is a ton of product turnover."

Rather than operating on a commission basis, Rosehill Liquidation staff work together to assist customers, creating a laid back browsing atmosphere that
