

AUCTIONS.

BY DAVID DUNHAM & Co.
On MONDAY,
At half past 9 o'clock, at their auction-room general assortment of DRY GOODS.

CHAMP DE MARS
Is now open for the reception of company at the sign of the Flag-Staff, upper end of Broadway. Refreshments as usual. July 2-14

PHOENIX
BY ISAAC COOPER, of Philadelphia, and EAST-BROOK, Knox & Co. No. 36 Broadway, New-York, FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION.

THE NAVAL CHRONICLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

At an epoch so fruitful of events, and so seriously interesting to every individual of the United States, a work under the title of The Naval Chronicle of the United States, is respectfully offered for public patronage by the publishers, with an humble hope that it will prove highly useful, instructive, and entertaining. To procure a lively recollection of the extended details of our navy, to preserve in a collected form, and to perpetuate the familiar recollections of its gallant officers, cannot but warmly interest the feelings of every American who partakes of the glory they have acquired, or hopes to receive from their exertions benefit or reputation.

The Naval Chronicle will contain information highly beneficial to advance the best interests of the navy, and will essentially contribute to cherish a high national character and feeling.

The publishers confidently assure the public that the most active exertions will be used to make the work truly valuable, which an ardent attachment to the navy, and the friendly aid of others, can effect.

PROSPECTUS
The Naval Chronicle of the United States will contain a full and complete record of all the official naval documents, information on naval affairs, and chronicle of naval events.

Discography and highly finished portraits of distinguished naval officers.

Engraving by the first artists of sea views and engagements.

Original pieces and selections from the best writers on naval tactics, architecture, hydrography, inventions and improvements, together with a faithful notice of every occurrence on the ocean, or embracing the naval department.

The work will be published on the first day of every year, in a style much superior to any publication of the kind in the United States. It will be printed in an octavo with elegant paper, and will contain about 200 pages, handsomely bound in green morocco backs and covers, and lettered. Price to subscribers, $3 dollars per volume, payable on delivery.

The first volume will be ready for delivery on the 1st of January next. It will be embellished with an elegant frontispiece, dedicated to the gallant officers and seamen of the navy, and highly commemorative of the late five naval victories.

It will contain all official letters, naval documents, and debates in congress on naval subjects, from the commencement of the war to the time of its publication.

A correct account of the operations of the navy from its first establishment in 1775, together with all the laws and regulations of the United States, relating thereto, in full force.

A full bibliography, and portraits of commodore J. B. Rodgers, and Commodore and Captain John Jones, as they appear, to be engraved by Edwin in his best style, from original paintings.

Six engravings by the first artists from original paintings, representing the engagements—Constitution and Guerriere—Wasp and Frolic—United States and Macedonian—Constitution and Java—and Hornet and Peacock—and a view of the Hornet blockading the Bonne Citoyenne at St. Salvador.

Original pieces and selections from the best writers, on such naval subjects as may be deemed most valuable to the American reader. A complete list of vessels captured from and by a enemy, with copies of extracts from the journals of commanders of private armed ships, together with other interesting nautical information, naval anecdotes, poetry, contrivances, obituary, &c.

A full general view of the prospectus will be presented in succeeding volumes, and the publishers earnestly in the attention of these friends to the work, and particularly of gentlemen in the navy, to communications on naval subjects.

Subscriptions received by the publishers, at the Tontine Coffee-Room, City-Hotel, Washington-Hall, Tammany-Hall, and the New-York City Library. July 2

THE SUBSCRIBER respectfully presents his compliments to the public in general, and to those gentlemen in particular, who have been so kind as to subscribe to his edition of the Telegraph, and informs them, that he has completed two of those invaluable and interesting instruments, one at the top of the Custom-House, and another at Governor's Island, which are now daily in requisition and actual operation—he has now added several questions, and received back direct and specific answers. He proposes on Friday the 9th inst. (from 10 till 12 o'clock in the forenoon, and from 5 till 6 o'clock in the afternoon, if the weather should be favorable) to exhibit a number of accurate and complete experiments, by which they may plainly discover the superiority and many singular advantages of this mode of communication. It is of small expense, perfectly accurate, and capable of conveying any unexpected intelligence which can be written, with a certainty exceeding common belief, and also that it can convey any verbal or written messages, orders or news, with perfect secrecy and privacy.

It is thought would bring some short message it might be agreeable to send it off by the telegraph
and to receive an immediate answer back.

For a full admission, to be had of Mr. Samuel Wood, Collins & Co. No. 53 and 119 Broadway, William & Watson, No. 96 Broadway, and of the Subscriber, in the Custom-House. Price 50 cents.
July 2. CHRISTOPHER COLLES.

JAMES W. BEATTIE respectfully informs the citizens of the United States, that the representation of the nation by the United States Constitution and to every individual, and that of the United States and Massachusetts, published by
B. Towner and J. Webster, will be offered for sale in the city of New-York, on Friday the 9th inst. The price will exhibit literally express full energies of the commanders of the American flag, with extraordinary decorations, and by J. Beattie, and engraved by Edwin in his best style, from original paintings.

The publishers of this work, who have been so kind as to
subscribe to his edition of the Telegraph, and in-
forms them, that he has completed two of those in-
valuable and interesting instruments, one at the top of the Custom-House, and another at Governor's Island, which are
now daily in requisition and actual operation—he
has now added several questions, and received back
direct and specific answers. He proposes on Fri-
day the 9th inst. (from 10 till 12 o'clock in the
forenoon, and from 5 till 6 o'clock in the afternoon,
if the weather should be favorable) to exhibit a
number of accurate and complete experiments, by
which they may plainly discover the superiority
and many singular advantages of this mode of
communication. It is of small expense, perfectly accurate, and capable of conveying any unexpected
intelligence which can be written, with a certainty
exceeding common belief, and also that it can convey any verbal or written messages, orders or
news, with perfect secrecy and privacy.

It is thought would bring some short message it
might be agreeable to send it off by the telegraph
and to receive an immediate answer back.

For a full admission, to be had of Mr. Samuel
Wood, Collins & Co. No. 53 and 119 Broadway, William & Watson, No. 96 Broadway, and of
the Subscriber, in the Custom-House. Price 50 cents.
July 2. CHRISTOPHER COLLES.

JAMES W. BEATTIE respectfully informs the citizens of the United States, that the representation of the nation by the United States Constitution and to every individual, and that of
the United States and Massachusetts, published by
B. Towner and J. Webster, will be offered for sale in the city of New-York, on Friday the 9th inst. The price will exhibit
literally express full energies of the commanders of
the American flag, with extraordinary decorations,
and by J. Beattie, and engraved by Ed-
win in his best style, from original paintings.

The publishers of this work, who have been so kind as to
subscribe to his edition of the Telegraph, and in-
forms them, that he has completed two of those in-
valuable and interesting instruments, one at the top of the Custom-House, and another at Governor's Island, which are
now daily in requisition and actual operation—he
has now added several questions, and received back
direct and specific answers. He proposes on Fri-
day the 9th inst. (from 10 till 12 o'clock in the
forenoon, and from 5 till 6 o'clock in the afternoon,
if the weather should be favorable) to exhibit a
number of accurate and complete experiments, by
which they may plainly discover the superiority
and many singular advantages of this mode of
communication. It is of small expense, perfectly accurate, and capable of conveying any unexpected
intelligence which can be written, with a certainty
exceeding common belief, and also that it can convey any verbal or written messages, orders or
news, with perfect secrecy and privacy.

It is thought would bring some short message it
might be agreeable to send it off by the telegraph
and to receive an immediate answer back.

For a full admission, to be had of Mr. Samuel
Wood, Collins & Co. No. 53 and 119 Broadway, William & Watson, No. 96 Broadway, and of
the Subscriber, in the Custom-House. Price 50 cents.
July 2. CHRISTOPHER COLLES.

JAMES W. BEATTIE respectfully informs the citizens of the United States, that the representation of the nation by the United States Constitution and to every individual, and that of
the United States and Massachusetts, published by
B. Towner and J. Webster, will be offered for sale in the city of New-York, on Friday the 9th inst. The price will exhibit
literally express full energies of the commanders of
the American flag, with extraordinary decorations,
and by J. Beattie, and engraved by Ed-
win in his best style, from original paintings.

The publishers of this work, who have been so kind as to
subscribe to his edition of the Telegraph, and in-
forms them, that he has completed two of those in-
valuable and interesting instruments, one at the top of the Custom-House, and another at Governor's Island, which are
now daily in requisition and actual operation—he
has now added several questions, and received back
direct and specific answers. He proposes on Fri-
day the 9th inst. (from 10 till 12 o'clock in the
forenoon, and from 5 till 6 o'clock in the afternoon,
if the weather should be favorable) to exhibit a
number of accurate and complete experiments, by
which they may plainly discover the superiority
and many singular advantages of this mode of
communication. It is of small expense, perfectly accurate, and capable of conveying any unexpected
intelligence which can be written, with a certainty
exceeding common belief, and also that it can convey any verbal or written messages, orders or
news, with perfect secrecy and privacy.

It is thought would bring some short message it
might be agreeable to send it off by the telegraph
and to receive an immediate answer back.

For a full admission, to be had of Mr. Samuel
Wood, Collins & Co. No. 53 and 119 Broadway, William & Watson, No. 96 Broadway, and of
the Subscriber, in the Custom-House. Price 50 cents.
July 2. CHRISTOPHER COLLES.

JAMES W. BEATTIE respectfully informs the citizens of the United States, that the representation of the nation by the United States Constitution and to every individual, and that of
the United States and Massachusetts, published by
B. Towner and J. Webster, will be offered for sale in the city of New-York, on Friday the 9th inst. The price will exhibit
literally express full energies of the commanders of
the American flag, with extraordinary decorations,
and by J. Beattie, and engraved by Ed-
win in his best style, from original paintings.

The publishers of this work, who have been so kind as to
subscribe to his edition of the Telegraph, and in-
forms them, that he has completed two of those in-
valuable and interesting instruments, one at the top of the Custom-House, and another at Governor's Island, which are
now daily in requisition and actual operation—he
has now added several questions, and received back
direct and specific answers. He proposes on Fri-
day the 9th inst. (from 10 till 12 o'clock in the
forenoon, and from 5 till 6 o'clock in the afternoon,
if the weather should be favorable) to exhibit a
number of accurate and complete experiments, by
which they may plainly discover the superiority
and many singular advantages of this mode of
communication. It is of small expense, perfectly accurate, and capable of conveying any unexpected
intelligence which can be written, with a certainty
exceeding common belief, and also that it can convey any verbal or written messages, orders or
news, with perfect secrecy and privacy.

It is thought would bring some short message it
might be agreeable to send it off by the telegraph
and to receive an immediate answer back.

For a full admission, to be had of Mr. Samuel
Wood, Collins & Co. No. 53 and 119 Broadway, William & Watson, No. 96 Broadway, and of
the Subscriber, in the Custom-House. Price 50 cents.
July 2. CHRISTOPHER COLLES.

JAMES W. BEATTIE respectfully informs the citizens of the United States, that the representation of the nation by the United States Constitution and to every individual, and that of
the United States and Massachusetts, published by
B. Towner and J. Webster, will be offered for sale in the city of New-York, on Friday the 9th inst. The price will exhibit
literally express full energies of the commanders of
the American flag, with extraordinary decorations,
and by J. Beattie, and engraved by Ed-
win in his best style, from original paintings.

The publishers of this work, who have been so kind as to
subscribe to his edition of the Telegraph, and in-
forms them, that he has completed two of those in-
valuable and interesting instruments, one at the top of the Custom-House, and another at Governor's Island, which are
now daily in requisition and actual operation—he
has now added several questions, and received back
direct and specific answers. He proposes on Fri-
day the 9th inst. (from 10 till 12 o'clock in the
forenoon, and from 5 till 6 o'clock in the afternoon,
if the weather should be favorable) to exhibit a
number of accurate and complete experiments, by
which they may plainly discover the superiority
and many singular advantages of this mode of
communication. It is of small expense, perfectly accurate, and capable of conveying any unexpected
intelligence which can be written, with a certainty
exceeding common belief, and also that it can convey any verbal or written messages, orders or
news, with perfect secrecy and privacy.

It is thought would bring some short message it
might be agreeable to send it off by the telegraph
and to receive an immediate answer back.

For a full admission, to be had of Mr. Samuel
Wood, Collins & Co. No. 53 and 119 Broadway, William & Watson, No. 96 Broadway, and of
the Subscriber, in the Custom-House. Price 50 cents.
July 2. CHRISTOPHER COLLES.

JAMES W. BEATTIE respectfully informs the citizens of the United States, that the representation of the nation by the United States Constitution and to every individual, and that of
the United States and Massachusetts, published by
B. Towner and J. Webster, will be offered for sale in the city of New-York, on Friday the 9th inst. The price will exhibit
literally express full energies of the commanders of
the American flag, with extraordinary decorations,
and by J. Beattie, and engraved by Ed-
win in his best style, from original paintings.

The publishers of this work, who have been so kind as to
subscribe to his edition of the Telegraph, and in-
forms them, that he has completed two of those in-
valuable and interesting instruments, one at the top of the Custom-House, and another at Governor's Island, which are
now daily in requisition and actual operation—he
has now added several questions, and received back
direct and specific answers. He proposes on Fri-
day the 9th inst. (from 10 till 12 o'clock in the
forenoon, and from 5 till 6 o'clock in the afternoon,
if the weather should be favorable) to exhibit a
number of accurate and complete experiments, by
which they may plainly discover the superiority
and many singular advantages of this mode of
communication. It is of small expense, perfectly accurate, and capable of conveying any unexpected
intelligence which can be written, with a certainty
exceeding common belief, and also that it can convey any verbal or written messages, orders or
news, with perfect secrecy and privacy.

It is thought would bring some short message it
might be agreeable to send it off by the telegraph
and to receive an immediate answer back.

For a full admission, to be had of Mr. Samuel
Wood, Collins & Co. No. 53 and 119 Broadway, William & Watson, No. 96 Broadway, and of
the Subscriber, in the Custom-House. Price 50 cents.
July 2. CHRISTOPHER COLLES.

JAMES W. BEATTIE respectfully informs the citizens of the United States, that the representation of the nation by the United States Constitution and to every individual, and that of
the United States and Massachusetts, published by
B. Towner and J. Webster, will be offered for sale in the city of New-York, on Friday the 9th inst. The price will exhibit
literally express full energies of the commanders of
the American flag, with extraordinary decorations,
and by J. Beattie, and engraved by Ed-
win in his best style, from original paintings.

TO MUSICAL AMATEURS.

M. R. LAYTON respectfully informs the general friends of this city, that he gives lessons on the Flute, English Horn, Clarinet, &c. Apply at the Music Store of Mr. Appel, 208 Broadway, or Mr.
Patt, 7 Chatham Row.
July 2-2w*

NOTICE is hereby given, that a dividend at the rate of 12 per centum per annum, on the amount of the several payments on account of the stock of the New-York Manufacturing Company, from the date of such payments to the 1st of July next, has been this day declared, and will be paid at the Banking House of the Company, on the said first of July, to the stockholders or their legal representatives. By order of the Board of Directors, DAVID I. GREENE,
June 26-3w Cashier.

New-York Manufacturing Company.
AN instalment of five dollars on each share in the Stock of this Company, to complete the payments to 60 per centum is required to be paid at the Banking House of the Company, on Tuesday the 31st of August next. The stockholders will be allowed to fill their Shares at any time from the 1st of July to the 31st of August, inclusive, paying interest from the 1st of July. By order of the Board of Directors, DAVID I. GREENE, June 26-1A Cashier.

AMERICAN COTTON GOODS.
JUST unpacked, an assortment of about 3000 pieces of Plaids, Ginghams, Stripes, Checks, Chambrays, white and brown Shirting and Shetting, Diaper, Kerseys, Dimity, Cotton Threads, Bleaching, Table Cloths, &c. For sale by piece or package, by T. C. DINNIE, 22 Beekman-stp.
June 21-1w

CITY-HOTEL—HUDSON.
AT this hotel old stand, formerly kept by Mr.
Nichols, and last by Messrs. Bennett and Swift, the subscriber will be happy to receive and accommodate travellers with every convenience and facility in his power. B. BINGHAM, May 22-3m

INTERESTING NARRATIVE.
THIS day is published by S. WOODWORTH &
Co. No. 60 Vesey-street,
A NARRATIVE
Of the Capture of the U.S. brig VIXEN, of 14 guns, by the British Frigate Southampton; And of the subsequent loss of both vessels on a reef of rocks, off Conception Island; with some account of the sufferings of the crew; their manner of deliverance, and final deposit in the prison-ships at Port Royal, Jamaica. The whole inter-sprised with various remarks, relative to the treatment shown by, and conduct observed by, the prisoners. By one of the Vixen's Crew, in a Letter to his Friend. Price 25 cents. June 5-4f

WOOL WANTED!
A DAMSON & OSGOOD wish to purchase a quantity of half and full-blooded MERICAN Wool, for the purpose of manufacturing, and would be willing to give as liberal a price as the article will bear—at No. 25 William-street.
June 29-1w

CHAPPEQUA SPRING.
THIS newly discovered Mineral Spring (the very valuable qualities of which, will shortly be made known to the public) is situated about 26 miles from New-York, and 3 miles from the village of Sungis, in Westchester county. A company in this city, having purchased said Spring, are desirous of procuring some person well calculated to keep a house of entertainment. Those who wish this situation, and are qualified for it, will apply immediately to Mr. SMITH, at his office in Veseystreet opposite St. Paul's Church. June 29

MANUSCRIPTS FOR SALE.
District of New-York, &c.
BY virtue of a certain writ of tandem ex parte, issued out of the district court of the United States for the district of New-York, and to me directed and delivered, I will expose to sale at public auction, on the 13th day of July next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, in front of the auction-room of Tripler & Craig, three Hogheads of Sugar and six teen Kegs of Pork—and in their auction-room, at the same time, a quantity of Spring Silk Cotton Hosiery, Gloves, Silk Handkerchiefs, and China Ware. Dated June 28, 1815. PETER CURTINEN, June 29-1J1 Marshall.

To be Let, for one or more years.
THE large and convenient Mansion-House of the subscriber, with coach-house and barn, all in good order—an excellent garden, stocked with several kinds of good fruit, an orchard, and small plantation. Also, a large meadow adjoining, which produces annually upwards of fifty tons of the best hay.

The premises are situated at Greenbush, nearly opposite to the city of Albany, and near to the ferry, on the bank of Hudson river, and in a thick settled neighbourhood. The house and appurtenances would accommodate a gentleman with a large family, and the rent would be reasonable.
It would also accommodate a person well qualified to keep a boarding-house, and such person would be sure of a constant supply of boarders, as the gentlemen of the army, stationed at Greenbush, as well as the visitants at the Harrow-gate-Springs, have long required such an establishment at this place, and are anxious for it.

The exclusive use of the Harrowgate Spring, would be let with the House, and would afford singular advantages to the occupant—if let for a term of years, such improvements would be desired, as should be found necessary to complete the accommodations, and as much pasture and arable ground, as may be required by the lessee, not exceeding two hundred and fifty acres. The terms made known by applying to Stephen H. Day-ard, esq. or Messrs. Boyd and Suydam, No. 21 South-street, New-York, or to the Subscriber, on the premises.

JOHN I. VAN RENSSLAER, Greenbush, 10th Feb 1815. Feb 22-d&t

WASHINGTON-HALL,
No. 282 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK, IS now opened for the accommodation of the public as an Hotel; and the Subscriber feels justified in assuring them, that it is replete with every convenience. The rooms are spacious and airy, and the bed-rooms (in a building separate from the hotel) are neat and retired, with one bed in each room. In the vicinity of Washington-Hall, are the City-Hotel, and the Washington, Manhattan, New-York, and Salt Water Baths. The Coffee-Room, in which the daily papers will be kept, and which will be opened to the public, fronts, as well as the Dining-room, on Broadway. In the second story of the Hall, is the most elegant and spacious assembly-room in the city, well adapted for the reception of the public, and for the entertainment of the best society. It is well furnished with every convenience for the reception of a large number of gentlemen, and is well adapted for the reception of a large number of gentlemen. DANIEL W. CROCKER, June 29-1w

A Porter Room is also opened (the entrance to which is in Reel-street) and is not visited by any in the city for entertainment and refreshment. Here refreshments of every sort may be had at the shortest notice.

An Ordinary every day (after the 20th) at half past 2 o'clock, of the best market refreshments.

The Coach-House and Stables, which are to be utilized for the Hall, are not only ready, though the stables are to be paid. A Stable provided and their horses taken care of. June 22-4f

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
Monday, July 5.
Mr. Sturges presented the petition of a number of the inhabitants of Connecticut, praying the establishment of a port of entry. Referred to the committee of commerce and manufactures.

Mr. Fisk, of N. Y. presented the petition of Jno.
Johnson and others, aliens, praying congress will pass a law allowing such persons as have taken the preparatory steps, to become citizens. Referred to the committee of foreign relations.

Mr. Benson called for the consideration of the resolution offered by him on Saturday last, for appointing a committee to enquire what business it will be necessary to transact during the present session of congress, and when it may be brought to a close. It was adopted and a committee of five ordered.

The house proceeded to the consideration of the bill laying a duty on licences to distillers of spirituous liquors.

After some debate on a proposition made by Mr. King, of Mass. to amend the bill, it was withdrawn and Mr. Patten moved to refer the bill to the committee of ways and means for the purpose of reporting a section, allowing a drawback on spirits distilled from molasses when exported, to equal to the duty paid on molasses on importation.

A debate took place, and the question on rescission was taken by yeas and nays, and were—yeas 42, nays 108.

Mr. King, of Mass. moved to recount the bill for the purpose of equalizing the duties on stills—Negative.

The question on engrossing the bill for a third reading was decided by yeas and nays as follows—yeas 90, nays 51.

It was ordered to be read a third time to morrow.

The House in committee of the whole, Mr. Nelson in the chair, on a bill for laying and collecting a direct tax.
A variety of amendments were proposed, some of which were adopted and others rejected, and the committee rose and reported the bill.
Adjourned.

THE LATE GEN. PIKE.
[A letter, of which the following is an extract, fell into the hands of an acquaintance, who has positively handed us an extract from it for publication, supposing (as it certainly will) be read with great interest by every American, as being the last letter ever written by one of the most gallant generals in our army, who fell gloriously at the head of his column at the redoubt of York. He was certainly propitious to his prayer, for by his gallantry he has "traced the scale of war, and slept in the arms of Victory."—Nat Intell.]

Extract of a letter from the late Gen. Pike, to his father, written at Bonaparte's, near Sackett's Harbor, the day before the expedition set out from the latter place, in which that valuable officer tells his father "I embark to-morrow in a fleet at Sackett's Harbor, at the head of a column of 1500 brave troops, on a secret expedition—If success attend my steps, honor and glory will my name—if defeat, still shall it be said we died like brave men, and acquired honor, even in death, on the American name.

"Should I be the happy mortal destined to turn the scale of war—will not you rejoice, O my Father? May Heaven be propitious and smile on the cause of my country. But if we are destined to fall, may my fall be like Wolf's—sleep in the arms of victory!"

From the Aurora.

A well-informed man cannot really feel laughing, when he reads the ridiculous stories propagated respecting general Moreau's plans; one represents him as a pensioner of England, going to Europe, in order to raise the standard of revolt; another sends him to Siberia, to take charge of the French prisoners (who says "Alexander, the deliverer" has officially informed the world, will never see France again). Another, more sanguine, tells us that he has gone to France to see his wife, by way of Sweden, which to be sure, is the shortest road.
Worthy imitators of the irresistible Munchausen!
How is it possible, that men of common sense can be ignorant of the real motives of Moreau's visit to America, and that his trial, banishment, &c. was a mere ruse, got up merely to entrap the credulous Americans?

A fool, a great fool, must the man be who refuses to believe that the conquest of this country has not been settled long ago by the French tyrant. Bonaparte has too much sense to begin any serious under-taking, unless he is sure of succeeding; it was absolutely necessary for him to have a faithful agent in America, who could feel the pulse of the parties, examine with attention the topography, the forces and the resources of this country. Moreau was the man best calculated for this purpose, he has been the cloak of his enmity to Bonaparte, he has been entrusted with all our secrets, knows all our vulnerable points; he has carefully examined our fortifications from Moughnagog to the Balize—from Mackinac to Mad River; he has travelled through the country. Mark how well he has acted his part!

Oh! cunning Frenchman! did you ever see him sitting with this, suspected of being under Fitz-Gibbon's influence? Has he been visiting or receiving any French agent? No, no! Like Teletyran, his intimate friends were those respectable gentlemen called leaders of the federalists; his guests were British, Spanish and Russian ministers. Such has been his hypocrisy that he has most completely deceived our best politicians. Now, that he has gained every information for executing his nefarious plan, he is going to communicate them to his employer; and he goes away in such a manner as to keep up the deception a little longer—unfortunately for us, he has been rather imprudent in the choice of his companions, and the secret has leaked out.

Remarque, constantly a tool of Bonaparte, has shown some hostile dispositions towards France, for the unique purpose of gulling John Bull, and to feel some of their guineas. It was necessary for the success of Bonaparte's plan, that Sweden should op-pear to be upon good terms with England—in consequence thereof, a treaty has been made, which seems to Bonaparte, to the theory of sending his fleet to sea. On his arrival on the continent, Moreau takes the command of a powerful army, embarks on board the Swedish fleet, with the avowed purpose of making a descent on the French coast; the fleet sets for its destination, but by some unaccountable misunderstanding, the army is opposed by a strong force, and is obliged to return to the Baltic—when a violent gale compels the armada (short of water and provisions) to put into some port of America, as New-York or the Chesapeake, but retrograde at then the army lands, and Moreau, at the head of five thousand men, is proclaimed king at Annapolis.

People of the United States, what do you think of that? Will you not believe it? If you do not, you are not worthy of your republican name.
Via Pro Nobis.

The fleet under com. Clutterbuck sailed from the harbor on Friday last. We understand that some movements of the enemy had been discovered which were supposed to indicate an intention on their part to make another attack upon that place.

The new ship General Pike, remains at port, not having yet finished. General Lewis arrived at the harbor on Friday, and took command of the land forces.

From the Utica Gazette, July 6.
FROM SACKETTS HARBOR.
The fleet under com. Clutterbuck sailed from the harbor on Friday last. We understand that some
movements of the enemy had been discovered
which were supposed to indicate an intention on
their part to make another attack upon that place.

The new ship General Pike, remains at port, not
having yet finished. General Lewis arrived at the
harbor on Friday, and took command of the land forces.

From the Utica Gazette, July 6.
FROM SACKETTS HARBOR.
The fleet under com. Clutterbuck sailed from the harbor on Friday last. We understand that some
movements of the enemy had been discovered
which were supposed to indicate an intention on
their part to make another attack upon that place.

The new ship General Pike, remains at port, not
having yet finished. General Lewis arrived at the
harbor on Friday, and took command of the land forces.

From the Utica Gazette, July 6.
FROM SACKETTS HARBOR.
The fleet under com. Clutterbuck sailed from the harbor on Friday last. We understand that some
movements of the enemy had been discovered
which were supposed to indicate an intention on
their part to make another attack upon that place.

The new ship General Pike, remains at port, not
having yet finished. General Lewis arrived at the
harbor on Friday, and took command of the land forces.

