THE GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE,

For MAY, 1813.

•• The Editor having considered that the following List of Subscribers, highly honorable as it is to all parties concerned, would nevertheless have been out of place in the pages of the Magazine, to the exclusion of the usual quantity of Miscellaneous articles: it is submitted to the Reader, in its present form, with Mr. B.'s consent, as an appropriate Appendix to what has already appeared. See our last, pp. 329—332.

TRIBUTES OF RESPECT TO VIRTUOUS OLD AGE.

Look not alone on youthful prime,
 Or manhood's active might;
 Man then is useful to his kind,
 Supported is his right:
 But—see him on the edge of life,
 With cares and sorrows worn,
 Then age and want, O ill-match'd pair!
 Shew "Man was made to mourn."

BURNS.—A Dirge: Stanza V.

True Charity, a plant divinely nurs'd,
 Fed by the LOVE from which it rose at first,
 Thrives against hope: and, in the rudest scene,
 Storms but enliven its unfading green;
 Exub'rant is the shadow it supplies;
 Its fruit on earth, its growth above the skies.

COWPER.—Charity: Line 574.
