ALBERT COLLEGE—This institution, opened in 1857 under the auspices of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now occupies a prominent position among the numerous institutions of learning in the Dominion. The course of instruction includes all the branches of the Common School, Grammar School, Commercial School and the higher branches of a complete collegiate education. The faculty is composed of gentlemen of eminent ability in their especial departments. Rev. J. R. Jaques, D.D., Ph., D., President.

ALEXANDRIA COLLEGE—An institution for the higher education of women, was established at the same time as Albert College, also ranks high as an institution of learning—where young women can take a thorough course in science and languages, especially prepared for them, and receive diplomas. Rev. J. R. Jaques, D.D., Ph., D., President.

THE ONTARIO INSTITUTE FOR THE DEAF AND DUMB—Established by the Ontario Government in 1870. Under wise and judicious management it now ranks among the first in importance among the institutions of its kind, having an average attendance of about 250 pupils. R. Mathison, Superintendent; A. Livingston, Purser; Dr. J. P. Murphy, Physician.

LÓRETTO ACADEMY—Under the direction of the ladies of Loretto, on E. John St. above Hotel St., is a popular school for the education of young women. It has a large attendance of pupils, and a thorough and liberal education is given in this institution.

THE SEPARATE SCHOOL is also under the direction of the Ladies of Loretto.

THE ONTARIO BUSINESS COLLEGE.—This School, under its present able and practical management, has attained to the largest attendance of any of the numerous Business Colleges in the Dominion. Robinson and Johnson, Principals.
