

MUD ENGULES 4 MEN

Infill Dec 12/63

BROTHER OF VICTIM among the first to suspect cave-in was William Black, civilian in trench, who grabbed shovel as firemen started search for his brother, Patrick, and Douglas Cronkright. Patrick Black was first of the victims found by searchers.

BACK-HOE (above) was still running at 10:30 p.m. and touched off search that revealed a tragedy already five hours old when first suspected. It was close to this machine that Patrick Black's body was found by searchers.
