

ner staff for the attractive decorations.

PRIZES PRESENTED

The first prize to be presented was the Catherine Ford Scholarship awarded to the pupils in the senior grades of the junior school who have made the greatest effort in Speech and Speech Reading and have achieved satisfactory progress. This was presented by Miss Hegle to Carol Cleary and Bully Pearsall.

Proficiency prizes — Intermediate School: presented by Miss Van Allen, 1 vocational 1, to Angela Hagen; by Miss Crabtree, for 1 vocational 2, to Grietje Vera; by Miss Munro for 1 Academic, to Shirley Bruce; by Mrs. Mann for 2 vocational, to Roland Lapointe; by Mr. Stratton, for 2 vocational 2, to Gerardus Martens; by Mrs. Ryan, 2 academic, to Anita Villa; by Mr. Vader, for 3 vocational 1, to Gail Thompson; by Mr. Fox, for 2 vocational 2, to Norene Mitchell; by Mrs. Simpson, for 3 academic 1, to Dorothy Cooke; by Mrs. Wannamaker for 3 academic 2, to Susan Cooper; by Mr. Stratton for Industrial arts and crafts, to Bruce Fisher, and by Miss Norman for sewing, to Ramonde LeBrun.

INTERMEDIATE AWARD

Intermediate award went to Mary Nicksy for speech; and to Billy Conley for speech reading, presented by Mrs. Wannamaker.

The special athletic awards were presented by Mr. Clare and Mrs. Lazarshi to: the junior girls' C.O.S.S.A. volleyball team — finalists, Donna Mosher (captain); Lucy Butcher; Susan Cooper; Carol Hale; Lorna Kirker; Carol Ann Palmer; Elizabeth Spark; Angela Vecchioni and Gail Williamson. Senior girls' basketball team, champions: Patsy Bishop (captain), Evelyn Caldwell; Diane Lew; Ruth Massiocotte; Dona Mosher; Margaret Munsie; Margaret Schneller; Jean Shaw; Beth Spark; Bernice Spence and Beth Wright.

The senior boys' O.F.S.S.A. volleyball team, champions. Harry Wilson, (captain); John Wright, James Hawkins; Andrew Dube; Eugene LeBlanc; Eugene Fowler; Herbert Alton; Arnold Enman; Murray Brolley (scorer); David Harvie, (linesman), by Mr. Kennedy and Mr. Bryant.

The outstanding athlete of the year award was presented to the boy and girl who have displayed the best all-round participation and leadership together with completed a course of study emphasizing vocational work. There were presented by Mr. Clare, assisted by Mr. Demeza, to Andrew Dube, Barry Flatt, Romeo Fournier, George Gemmill, Larry Jakeman, Lucy Kasm, Violet Lawrence, Diane Lew, Bruce Newton, Byron Parliament, Tommy Racine, Isobel Thronicroft, Nancy Tumilson, May White, Daniel Wilson and Bruce Williams.

The graduation certificates went to students who, after completing the curriculum for grade eight, have continued in school for two more years, this enabling them to obtain a better standing in the business world. Mr. Demeza, assisted by Mr. Kennedy, presented these certificates to Beth Moore and Harry Wilson.

H. B. FETTERLY AWARD

The H. B. Fetterly Award, for progress and proficiency in speech and speech reading in the senior school, donated annually by Mrs. H. B. Fetterly, and daughters, Mrs. Muriel Cuykendall and Miss Jean Fetterly in memory of the late H. B. Fetterly, M.A., former superintendent of the Ontario School for the Deaf, from 1930-1934. These were presented by Mr. W. J. Morrison to Evelyn Caldwell and Gerald Sullivan. Mrs. Fetterly, who was unable to be present, sent her best wishes to the winners.

And finally, the awards by the superintendent, a major award donated by Mr. Demeza to students of the graduating or full-time vocational classes, academic, vocational and out-of-school achievements during the residential school life at the O.S.D. are considered in this award. The winners of these were Harry Willson and Andrew Dube.

Brief remarks were given by Mr. W. J. Morrison, who appreciated being present at this momentous occasion, extending best wishes to the graduating class; and by Mr. Kennedy who, on behalf of the staff, extended sincere thanks for helpful leadership to Mr. Demeza during the school year and wishing him and Mrs. Demeza a happy holiday (his first mate) sailing his new boat along the Bay of Quinte.

The Valedictory address, given elsewhere in this issue, was read by the outstanding student of the year, Harry Willson.