

acceptance speeches was projected onto a large screen beside the presentation platform, although in several instances the speaking proficiency of prize-winning students removed the need for any visual assistance.

Graduation certificates were awarded to the following students for completing academic and vocational courses of study: Joan Breivik, Clifton Carbin, David Carson, Rusty Clarke, Richard Colosimone, Liliiane Lortie, Gerald Richardson, Peter Sicoli, Bruce Ullett, Janice Bancarz, Ivan Beer, Ivan Cassidy, Herbert Cripps, Angela Hagen, Ralph Martin, Wanda Neal, Lorraine Porter, Terry Stewart and Kenneth Warren.

Certificates of merit, awarded to students successfully completing a course of study emphasizing vocational work were presented to Margaret Bossence, Beverly Bowen, David Buzzie, Diane Chapeski, John Holyk, Kenneth Johnson, Konrod Kapsa, Sharon Montoun, Douglas Rowe, Greitje Verra, Diane Wilson, Gail Young and Leslie Young.

PRESENT AWARDS

This year's recipient of the Fee-Proctor Memorial award as the most deserving student graduating and proceeding to further education was Peter Sicoli.

Mr. Sicoli, along with Angela Hagen, also received a Superintendent's Award for academic, vocational, and out-of-school achievements during the students' complete school life at O.S.D.

The H. B. Fetterly Award for progress and proficiency in speech and speech reading in the Senior School was shared by David Carson and Liliiane Lortie, who delivered the valedictory.

Margaret Bossence received the Girls' Residential Award, presented annually to the senior girl who has contributed most to residential life during her school career.

Janice Bancarz and Herbert Cripps were selected as the school's outstanding athletes of the year for their all-round participation and leadership, combined with sportsmanship and ability.

PRIZE WINNERS

Senior School proficiency prize winners in the academic department were: Roman Kazragys

prize went to: Angela Hagen; Janice Bancarz; Arthur Wilson; Margaret Bossence; Joan Breivik; John Holyk; Mark Cossey;

In the intermediate school, the Intermediate Award for progress and proficiency in speech was presented to Patricia Weedmark

Martin; Wanda Neal; Peter Sicoli; Greitje Verra; Kenneth Warren; Diane Wilson, and Leslie Young.