

✓ Teachers of Deaf Meet

Sept. Aug. 24, 1973.

Teachers of the deaf from across Canada gathered at Ontario School for the Deaf Thursday for the beginning of a 2½ day convention. Among those participating in opening exercises were Garry Gervis of the school's staff, chairman of the planning committee, W. K. Clarke, ministry of education official responsible for provincial schools for the deaf and Norm Rickaby of the OSD staff who translated the opening remarks into sign language.