

224 Ann St,

Above are five photographs of 224 Ann St. and surrounding area. Starting top, from left are Harry and Elizabeth Earle, first owners of 224 Ann St., in Corby Park in early part of this century; two ladies on south lawn of the house with veranda and pull down blind behind them; a view of the home with Irene McCunn in the foreground near the old Corby Park fountain; the former fountain (photo courtesy Hastings County Historical Society) later sold for scrap metal, with house in background and immediately above, 224 Ann St. today.

(b)

Intel-Sun, July 25/93