

SUBMITTED PHOTO

The fine exterior of the St. Agnes Manor exhibited Tuscan-style of architecture, a fashionable trend in the mid-1800s. The historic building on the corner of Ann and Bridge streets in Belleville was torn down in 1973 to make way for the current apartment building.

Manor was made to last

STORY BY BENZIE SANOMA FOR THE INTELLIGENCER

Intelligencer - October 18, 2003 p. D2