

V EST INDIES

au-Spain, with Governor Sir Alfred Claud Hollis. It is hoped that the Duke of Gloucester, on his way to the West Indies, will meet the honeymooners there. He has not seen them since before their mar-

Hauptmann in Hurry to Get Action Picks Fisher

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 19 (AP)-Bruno Hauptmann's urgent plea for prempt actfon on an appeal from his death sentence stirred up a controversy among his attorneys today and presaged an open break with Edward J. Reilly, chief defence counsel.

Over the objection of Reilly, Hauptmann from the death house requested C. Lloyd Fisher, Flemington attorney and associate de-

Control of Cultists Urged by Doctor at Chi-

BOARDS MEET

Dr. Etherington of Kingston Refers to Osteopathic Practice

Chicago Feb. 19 (C?)- The aspirations and demands of Osteopaths for licensure on the same terms as physicians demand no consideration" stated Dr. Frederick Etherington of Kingston, Ont., today addressing the Federation of State Medical Boards of the United States in conference here.

Dr. Etherington, Dean of Queen's University Faculty of Medicine, said he and a colleague who visited four leading United States schools of Osteopathy concluded that graduates of these institutions could not be admitted to practice on the same terms as graduates of the medical schools of the United States and Canada.'

Previously the conference-heard from Dr. Charles Gordon Heyd of New York the prediction that 60 percent of the medical-practice in thickly populated states would be in dispensaries and clinics 10 years

The New York medico said: 'It is apparent that the voluntary hospital_system is in the process of oreaking down by reason of the inadequacy of funds derived from philanthropic sources.

Control of Cultists

Dr. Charles B. Parkham, Secretary of the State Board of Medical Examiners of California at Sacramento, urged a uniform standard licensure of physicians be adopted by State Boards to control "cult-

Glving the conference his conclusions in regard to Osteopathy, Dr. Etherington claimed he had found actual teaching of medicine at the bedside of the sick "grossly, even lamentably, inadequate," Osteopathic Schools he and colleagues visited.

"At the largest school," he sald. "the building devoted to hospital service is old, dirty and in a state of disrepair. Instead of foundation

FUTURE PRACTICE H. Gardner is Questioned DISPENSARIES About Transportation Chicago to Los Angeles

Miss M. Kelso Tells Court of Remarks Made by Mrs. Vermilyea

RINGING OF BELL

Witness Swears Heard Footsteps Climbing Stairs

Evidence dealing with the attack on Mrs. Aurelia Vermilyea, 76, and the arrest of her 49-year-old son Harold, two days later in Ontario, California, was related at the fifth day of the son's murder trial today, along with detailed identification of clothing and articles found in the California home.

A beginning was made in the reading of transcript of evidence of witnesses take by Commission at San Bernardino, California, before Mr. T. W. Duckworth, who had been appointed a commissioner for that purpose, but the reading was halted for the time being.

Police on Stand

Chief Constable Alex Kidd, In-spector Hamar Gardner, of the O.P.P., and Miss Mary Kelso were on the stand this morning.

Within three hours after the discovery of Mrs. Aurelia Vermilyea in a dying condition on the lawn of her daughter on Bridge Street East, her injuries being the result of an alleged hatchet attack, contact had been established by the police of Belleville with the police of Ontario, California, the city Chief of Police testified.

After an adjournment on Monday, owing to the illness of four of the jurors, suffering from influence, Court on the trial of Harold W. Vermilyea, resumed on Tuesday morning.

Vermilyea entered the court room at 9.30 o'clock. Carefully groomed dressed in his usual neatly pressed chocolate brown suit, and suave and poised as usual, he took his seat in the prisoner's dock and after a brief survey of the court room, settled back on his air cushion, arms resting on both railings as he lolled at ease.

Matted Hair on Blade

Chief Alexander Kidd of the Belleville police force, first witness called under the questioning of Crown Attorney B. C. Donnan, to the scene and made an examitold of the night in question and of nation. This was carried on by proceeding to the scene of the as- fleshlight

Guard Health Of Trial Jury, Milk Provided

Precautions are being taken by Mr. Justice Jeffrey to see that no relapse in the health of the jurors on the trial of Harold Vermilyea, occurs.

Extended recess periods are being given during the day, and in the rest intervals bottles of rich milk are being served to keep up their health.

Today the jurors appeared in livelier spirits than on Saturday, wire was sent requesting the apprehension of accused, but no hour could be fixed by witness.

Q. How soon after the accident. did it occur to you Harold Vermilyea might have been implicated? A. The same night.

Q. Before midnight? A. It was. "Perhaps by eleven o'clock suggested Col. Greer.

A. About half past?
Q. Did you have any discussion with Miss Mountenay?

This question was objected to by His Lordship.

Witness told of wiring all bor der points after contact had been established with California. Telephone communication, to the best of his recollection was not madwith Ontario, Calif., until Octobe-6th, said witness. Defence count: tempted to place the exact hour messages had been sent

Edition of Newspaper

Roy Norman Stubbs, a Mail and Empire press room superintendent, Toronto, recalled October 5th and placed the time of the "one star edition" of the paper as being on the streets at 12:35 that morning.

All three editions of the paper that morning carried full headlines telling of the attack of Mrs.

Vermilyea, said witness.
Inspector Hamar Gardner, of the Provincial Police Department, To-ronto on the night of Oct. 4th had been at his home when news of the crime had been received. A call had been received by him at mid-night. He arrived in Belleville at