

Bulls well represented in the pros

Many consider the Ontario Hockey League the best breeding ground for future professional hockey players.

And the Belleville Bulls have done their part to help flesh out the lineups of National Hockey League clubs and various North American-based minor pro teams since the city first iced an OHL squad in 1981.

Here are some of the Belleville graduates who played in the pros last season:

NHL
Jarrod Skalde, Calgary Flames.
Darren McCarty, Detroit Red Wings.

Scott Thornton, Edmonton Oilers.

Bryan Marchment, Edmonton Oilers.

Troy Crowder, Los Angeles Kings.

Marty McSorley, New York Rangers.

Dan Quinn, Philadelphia Flyers.
Craig Mills, Winnipeg Jets.

Richard Park, Pittsburgh Penguins.

Rob Pearson, St. Louis Blues.

Derek Wilkinson, Tampa Bay Lightning.

Doug Gilmour (Tier II Bulls) Toronto Maple Leafs.

Brandon Convery, Toronto Maple Leafs.

Craig Billington, Boston Bruins.

American League
Radim Bicanek, PEI Senators.
Kent Hulst, Portland Pirates.

Scott Feasby, Rochester Americans.

Jarrod Skalde, Saint John Flames.

Brian Secord, Springfield Falcons.

Brent Gretzky, St. John's Maple Leafs.

International League
Stan Drulia, Atlanta Knights.
Derek Wilkinson, Atlanta Knights.

Steve Bancroft, Chicago Wolves.
Todd Hawkins, Cincinnati Cyclones.

Kevin Brown, Phoenix Roadrunners.

East Coast League
Kevin Brown, Dayton Bombers.

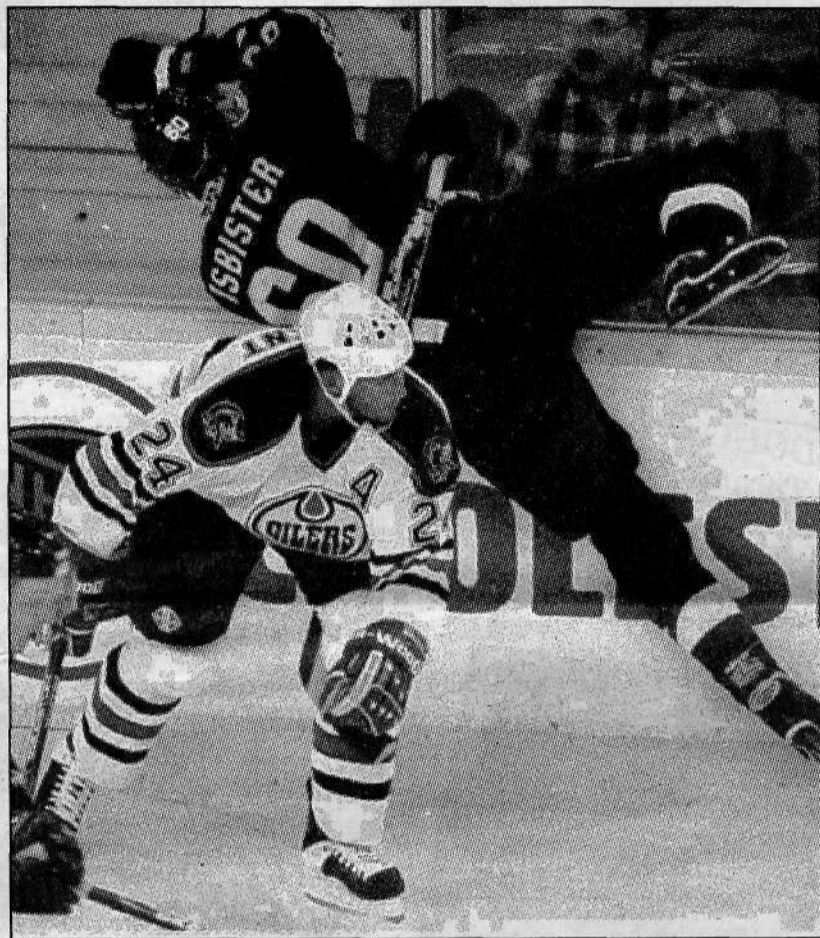

Jeff Kostuch, Hampton Roads Admirals.

Bob Berg, Louisiana Ice Gators.
Craig Binns, Mobile Mysticks.

Scott Boston, South Carolina Stingrays.

Paul Rushforth, South Carolina Stingrays.

Gairin Smith, Wheeling Thunderbirds.

Former Belleville Bull captain Bryan Marchment is now an assistant captain of the National Hockey League Edmonton Oilers. Marchment, who was a first round OHL pick as well as a first round NHL pick (Winnipeg) is seen in this photo hip checking Brad Isbister of Phoenix during an NHL exhibition game earlier this week.

TROY CROWDER RIGHT WING • ALLIEN DROYT

bulk barn

GO BULLS GO!

YOUR CHOICE FOR BULK FOODS

OVER 4,000
ITEMS

Quinte Mall
Guaranteed Top Quality
Belleville