

the Deaf and Dumb, and an Exam. for the Med. Council, N. B. In religion, a Bapt., he has filled the offices of Secy., V.-P. and Presdt. of the Bapt. Convention of the Maritime Provinces. He is also a dir. of the Maritime Bapt. Pub. Co. Mr. C. has written largely for the press, often anonymously, on educational topics, the temp. question, matters of Christian doctrine and practice, etc.; and has also prepared a variety of matter for school texts and other books. He has taken an active part in the work of fraternal orders and societies, and has reached the highest offices and rewards in their gift to bestow—Freemasonry, Oddfellowship, Temp., United Workmen, and Forestry, being all included in the list. In Forestry especially, his services have marked him out for special honour at the hands of his brethren. For 5 yrs. he was the head of the order (H.C.R.) in N.B.; he was Supreme Vice-C.R. for 2 yrs., and he finally received the Grand Cross of Merit at the close of his official career. He m. 1867, Miss Jessie S. Masters, of St. John, N.B.—Fredericton, N.B.

CREELMAN, Adam Rutherford, Q.C., is the s. of Jas. R. Creelman, of Stewiacke, by his wife Isabella C., dau. of the late John Patterson, of Pictou, N.S. Born at Richibucto, N.B., Sept. 21, 1849, he was ed. at the Grammar Sch. there and at the Presb. Acad., Chatham, N.B. Called to the Ont. bar 1875, he entered the firm of Crooks, Kingsmill & Cattach, Toronto; but in 1877, joined a new firm formed by D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C., which now bears the name of McCarthy, Osler, Hoskin & Creelman. He was created a Q.C. by the Earl of Derby 1889. He is a dir. of the Can. Landed and Natl. Invest. Co. Mr. C. takes great interest in athletics and all manly sports. He is a mem. of the R.C.Y. Club, the Ont. Jockey Club, the Country and Hunt Club, the Athletic Club, the Toronto Cricket Club and the Toronto Golf Club, and was for some yrs. Presdt. of the latter body. Politically, a Lib.; in religious faith, he is a Presb. He m. Nov. 1878, Margt., dau. of the late Rev. John Jennings, D.D.—13 Queen's Park, Toronto; Toronto Club.

CREELMAN, George Christie, educationist, is the s. of Jas. Rutherford Creelman, by his wife Isabella, and was b. at Collingwood, Ont., May 9, 1869. Ed. at the Coll. Inst. there, he entered the Ont. Agr. Coll., Guelph, Oct. 1885, took assoc. diplomas 1887, and graduated B.S.A. 1888, at Toronto Univ. Since then he has taken special courses in Biology at Cornell Univ., 1891; at Univ. of Wisconsin, 1892; and at Mich. Ag. Coll., 1893. He was apptd. Asst. Prof. of Biology at the Mississippi Agr. and Mech. Coll., Jan. 1, 1889, and was elected Prof. of Biology therein, July 1892. He was V.-P. of the State Teachers' Assn., 1892-93, and was largely instrumental in having Botany introduced into the public schs. of Miss. As a mem. of the faculty of Peabody Normal Sch., 1894, he delivered a series of lectures on Botany and Physiol. to the public sch. teachers of the State. Prof. C. m. 1892, Ada, eld. dau. of Jas. Mills, Presdt. of the Ont. Agr. Coll., Guelph, Ont.—Agricultural Coll., Starkville, Miss., U.S.A.

CREELMAN, James, newspaper correspondent and litterateur, is the s. of the late Matthew Creelman, for many yrs. an officer of the Steam Inspection Assur. Co., Montreal. B. in Montreal, 1858, he ran away from home when 12 yrs. of age. He started to walk to N. Y., a feat he successfully accomplished by virtue of a ride now and then on a ry. train. Attracting the attention of the Rev. Dr. Muhlenberg, he obtained employment in the office of Church and State, then the official organ of the Prot. Ep. Ch. in Am. He learned the business of a printer thoroughly in various establishments, finally drifting into the office of the Brooklyn Eagle, where he met Thos. Kinsella, who encouraged him to write, and to whom he submitted

Sch., and in 1894, passed the second exams., but has not yet gone up for call to the bar. He was apptd. Mackenzie fellow in Const. History at Toronto Univ., 1895. Before leaving the Univ. he had done some meritorious newspaper work, and in 1892 became connected with the MacLean Publishing Co., as ed. of 3 of their monthly trade papers. This position he resigned on his appt., Sept. 1895, to the editorship of the Can. Magazine (Toronto) where he still is. Since 1893 Mr. C. has been Secy.-Treas. of the Can. Press Assn. He holds a lieutenantcy in the Queen's Own Rifles. He m. June, 1896, Agnes M. (B.A. Queen's Univ., 1895), eld. dau. of Capt. J. Massie, R.C.A., Kingston.—20 Nanton Crescent, Toronto.

"A man of ability and force."—A. H. U. Colquhoun.

CORBY, Henry, distiller and legislator, is the s. of the late Hy. Corby, M.P.P., a native of Hanwall, Middlesex, Eng., and was b. at Belleville, Ont., May 2, 1851. Ed. at the public schs., and at Rockwood Acad., he took a commercial course at Toronto, and subsequently entered his father's office. On the death of his father he succeeded to his business as a miller, distiller and importer of wines. In his hands the business and works have grown considerably, and they are now among the largest and most prosperous existing in that line in the Dom., a village of considerable extent having been built up about the works at Corbyville in the Tp. of Thurlow. Mr. C. is Asst. Chief of the Belleville Fire Dept., a dir. of the Dist. Agr. Exhn. Co., V.-P. of the Bay of Quinte Bridge Co., Presdt. of the Cricket Club, Presdt. of the Yacht Club, Presdt. of the Bicycle Club, Presdt. of the Forest and Stream Club, Presdt. of the Natural Gas Co., and Presdt. of the Belleville branch of the St. John Ambulance Assn. He is also the owner of Massassaga Park, and has erected a hotel and a number of cottages for the public convenience, and is a prominent Freemason, Odd-fellow and Son of Eng. He has represented West Hastings in the Ho. of Commons, in the Con. interest, since Mch., 1888, and is Presdt. of the Con. Assn. of the 6th Dist. He m. Sept., 1872, Maria, dau. of the late John Courtney.—Belleville, Ont.; Rideau Club; Albany Club.

"A popular and honorable man."—Mail and Empire.

COREY, Rev. Charles Henry (Bapt.), educationist, was b. at New Canaan, N.B., Dec. 12, 1834, and is of U.E.L. descent, his ancestors having come from R. I. at the time of the Am. revolution. Ed. at Acadia Coll. (B.A., 1858; M.A., 1861), he pursued his Theol. studies at Newton, Mass., graduating, 1861, and was ordained pastor of the 1st Bapt. Ch., Seabrook, N.H. This position he resigned, 1864, to enter the service of the U. S. Christian Comm., and he remained in that service until the close of the Am. war. After 2 yrs. of mission service in S. C., Dr. C. was apptd. Presdt. of the Augusta Inst., Augusta, Ga., an institution existing under the auspices of the National Theol. Inst. and Univ. In the following year he was transferred to Richmond, Va., as the Presdt. of an institution for the training of coloured preachers and teachers. In this work he has been eminently successful. He is now Presdt. of Richmond Theol. Semy. Dr. C. has travelled much, and not long since returned from a tour through Egypt, Palestine, Syria, Greece and Italy. He is the author of "A History of the Richmond Theol. Semy., with Reminiscences of 30 Years' Work" (1895). He has recd. the degree of D.D. from Richmond Coll., Richmond, Va., from McMaster Univ., Toronto, from Acadia Univ., N. S., and from Baylor Univ., Texas. He m. 1865, Fannie, dau. of Hon. Jas. Sanborn, of Seabrook, N.H.—1823 East Main St., Richmond, Va.

"A man of the finest intellectual qualifications and attainments, as well as of high Christian character and pleasant personality. He has practically devoted his life to educa-