

AT ALUMINUM STAR — Pattern maker Jacob Berkhuiser works on a wooden carving of the Canadian Federal crest. The carving will be used as a pattern for aluminum castings of the crest. In the picture, Berkhuiser has removed the lions' head from the crest, (it belongs in the lower left corner of the picture), to cut some details.

*Intelligencer,
March 2/64*