

BeCon Engineering is one of the city's most progressive firms and has left its mark on Belleville and area. Officials Bill White (standing) and

Barry Brown are the driving force behind the company's success. Its latest engineering coup was the successful renovation on Belleville's historic city hall, a job applauded by everyone.