

Cast off in search of adventure

Boaters of every description will be able to fulfill all their needs at one of our full-service marinas. The Bay of Quinte is famous for its sheltered waters and fine boating conditions, and is the gateway to the Trent-Severn Waterway.

Visit a bygone era

Built in 1883, this restored Victorian mansion was designated a National Historic Site for its outstanding architectural features. Glanmore houses superb collections of furniture and works of art.

See local artisans at work

The Belleville area is home to many fine artisans and craftspeople. Studios are plentiful, and many are open to the public. Antique lovers will find lots of shops, flea markets and auctions.

