Recognized as a Communities in Bloom award winner for its beautification projects, Bay of Quinte Country is a gardener's paradise. Residents take regional pride in the romance and allure of Belleville's Corby Rose Garden. Year-round Farmer's Markets are offered in Belleville and Trenton, and fresh, local produce is always available at quaint roadside stands throughout the summer.

The cities, villages and towns in Bay of Quinte Country are dedicated to preserving the region's rich history while developing its future prosperity. Mid-18th Century architecture and commemorative museums are complemented by modern, well-appointed shopping and dining venues, including the 122-store Quinte Mall.
