

'They're great for a bar owner, because they keep the caps off the floor, and customers like to watch the bartender throw them, or do it themselves.'

Intelligencer photo by Jennifer Bell

Steve Hiscock, owner-manager of Exavier Manufacturing in Belleville's east end, demonstrates the Cap Catcher, a magnetized bar sign that holds hundreds of beer or bottle caps.