

cation of Marianne's). Yeomans Drug Store was burned out some years later. Albert L. Geen next moved to 280 Front Street (present location of Mr. Jeffery and Noonday Graphics), where the business remained until his death in 1941. In 1941, P.W. Geen purchased the building at 276 Front Street, formerly Wallbridge & Clark, Grocers, and the business has remained there to this day. In February 1946, the business was incorporated as GEEN DRUGS Limited. In 1971, the drug store was recognized by the Ontario College of Pharmacists as a Centennial Pharmacy and two memorial plaques presented. Since then, the name of the pharmacy has been changed again to GEEN'S PRESCRIPTION Pharmacy, Limited. In December, 1977, Geen's expanded their business with the opening of a large branch at 305 North Front Street, in the North Front Centre.
