

Goldfarb Graphics

Intelligence, Nov. 30/94

Or perhaps you've seen his fleet work on Eastern Overhead Doors, Riverside Plumbing, Hunter Tires or Cornerstone Builders. And has constructed signs for Wallbridge Auto, Dazzles Gentlemen's Club and T and T Mechanics, to name but a few. In fact, it's difficult NOT to see one of Goldfarb's creations in the Quinte region.

"I kind of have a friendly one on one relationship with people," says Dan sincerely.

True enough. One meeting and it's difficult not to like the man who has been in the graphic design business, in one form or another, for the past 15 years. And there's every indication that Goldfarb Graphics is really going to take off.

And to think it all began with vinyl.

Chris Sanders, employee of Goldfarb Graphics, proudly displays on the promotional signs he has created.

Any size sign or graphic is no problem, according to Dan Goldfarb. Signs can either be elaborate or simple. Either way, vinyl effectively gets the point across.
