

Kelly's Drugs - Oct 24/89

Once near city-limits,

drugstore now in East hill's heart

A new cosmetics "bullpen" is one of the key features of the new Kelly's Drugstore on Bridge Street East. Cosmetician Cindy Boyle has always been a busy person — and the expansion promises to make her even busier. It is one of the many new features in the expanded store, which has been part of the city's east-end landscape for decades. Once near the city limits, the store is now in the heart of a bustling, dynamic neighborhood.
