

Micro Age

Intelligencer, Nov 30, 1994

bon or it could be something complex as a large network — I want to deal with everyone,” says Tom.

The computer industry has evolved immensely over the past 10 years and MicroAge has done its utmost to keep on top of it. Its success can be measured by the large corporations, the small business person and the family and their personal computer — all important in the eyes of Tom and his employees.

“The computer industry is a lot of fun,” he says. “To me it’s a great industry to be in. It’s always changing. Just when you think you know something, something else comes up. I enjoy challenges.” Please call 966-6201 or service 966-6206.

Meet the dedicated sales and administrative staff at MicroAge. (l-r) Peggy Molloy, Greg Murphy, John Boyle, Chuck Murphy and Janice Fleming.

The highly-qualified service staff at MicroAge are (l-r) Clark Hatley, Laird Weatherell, Tom Fleming, Steve Corfield and Peter Kelly.