

Nortel Networks has been a fixture in Belleville since 1947 beginning as Northern Electric, becoming Northern Telecom and eventually Nortel Networks. The photos on this page were culled from The Intelligencer's files but dates and caption information are unfortunately unavailable. As we do with our Time Capsule photographs on page 4, readers, who may know information about these photographs, are asked to call City Editor Brian O'Meara at 962-9171, ext 229 or by fax at 962-9652.
