

Riggs Motors on Pinnacle Street, across from what is now the Days Inn, kept a wide stock of Case tractors. On the back of the truck (at the right end) is a 1930s threshing machine. Staff, from left: Jack Kent (salesman), Harry Moorman (general manager), Leo Riggs (owner), Roy Thompson (salesman), Cy Jones (Case tractor representative), Carl Gunter (tractor mechanic), George Vanner (tire repair & vulcanizer), Jack Mather (bookkeeper), Gordon Burley (mechanic), Don Brown (mechanic), Archie Brown (mechanic), Archie Burley (mechanic) and Perc Hart (mechanic & foreman).

Leo Riggs

Riggs Motors

Intelligencer
Remember better
Nov. 20, 1995

Over →