

New Plant Marks Industrial Growth July 21/56

Eight sixty-foot storage silos, four of which are shown above are one of the construction features of the new plant now being built by the Wilson Concrete Products Ltd. on its Sidney Street site. In the foreground is the new mobile hydraulic crane which has a boom extension of 75 feet. The company expects to be in production in early October.

Intelligencer, July 21, 1956

BELLEVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY
ONTARIO