

Adams, Suzanne

Suzanne Adams, a 19-year-old Sidney Township resident, (centre) has leukemia and requires a bone marrow transplant to stay alive. Her father Bob (left) and her boyfriend Frank have provided much moral support through her ordeal. Suzanne wants people to know that they can help by becoming potential bone marrow donors.

(Photo - Frank O'Connor)

Intell Apr 2/88