

Suzanne Adams, a 19-year-old leukemia victim, has still been unable to find someone whose bone marrow is a perfect match for hers. Adams, who lives in Sidney Township, needs the transplant to stay alive, she recently told students at Quinte Christian High School. Her father Bob, a local businessman, has established a special trust fund at the downtown Bank of Montreal branch for donations to help Suzanne and other young cancer victims.

(Photo - Frank O'Connor)

ADAMS, SUZANNE

WHEELER,
APR. 23/88