

City honours Joe Angelo

"They're the ones who foot the bill," he told council. "The citizens expect us to look after those services we provide to them."

Angelo extended a thank you to all the former and current citizens of the city. It is because of these people, he said, he has been able to use his skills.

But the most important person to thank, he said, is his wife, Helen, who "has always supported him."

Looking at the plaque presented to him, Angelo said, "I certainly will find a spot to hang this ... and it will remind me of my many years here."
