

In Time for Easter

Easter isn't that far away, and the daffodils are just beginning to flower. Mrs. Joan Stanton, who has been employed at one of the local greenhouses for more than 40 years explained that most of the plants are grown to meet seasonal demands, such as Easter.

Intell Jan 23/70