Hendry said while Mrs. Colden gave her time freely she also enjoyed her free time. When not sitting in a board meeting she could be found on the golf course or at the curling rink.

"She also had a cottage near Cloyne and absolutely loved cottage life. She was a really avid sports person."

Predeceased by her husband, Tom, and daughter, Patricia, Mrs. Colden leaves behind her sons David and wife Sandra of Fernie, BC, Richard and wife Carol of Toronto, her son-in-law Arch MacDonald of Ottawa, six grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held today at Bridge Street United Church at 2:30 p.m.
